REFLECTION

In the End, Does it Matter?

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

When I was a teenager, the priest I would go to for confession used to tell me over and over: “In the end, we all get the same dirty hole in the ground.”

What he meant was, it doesn’t matter how rich or smart or well-liked we are. We’re all heading to the same place. This life comes to an end for every person. All the money earned, all the stuff, all the worldly esteem, will at some point be of no further use. We all get the same dirty hole in the ground.

It was an important message for me to hear, because at the time, it all seemed so important: my after-school job, my FAFSA application, and my grades. The admiration of my friends and teachers. I was so consumed with what I was going to become that I wasn’t spending a lot of time thinking about who I was BECOMING. But the who is the only thing that lasts until the next life.

And to be honest, it’s all still too important to me. Avoiding sadness and disappointment. Saving money and being liked. Focusing on “the five-year plan” when it comes to career, house plans, and a whole bunch of other things I can’t take to my dirty hole in the ground.

Jesus was radical in his teaching that the “stuff” in life wasn’t all that important. It was radical for him to say that the worldly signs of success — wealth, popularity, pleasure — did not amount to a whole lot in the grand scheme of things, and that suffering could sanctify us. It was radical in the ancient world, and it’s radical today.

Are we ready to be radical, too? ©LPi

MISSIONARY DISCIPLESHIP

Worth & Sacrifice

What is your soul worth?

How about this: what is the soul of your child worth, your spouse, your best friend?

This, my friends in Jesus, is what our religion is all about; a thing is worth what someone is willing to sacrifice for it. That "thing" is you. That "someone" is Jesus. That "sacrifice" is His own life. If we take another step out, that "thing" remains you. That "someone" is God. That "sacrifice" is Jesus.

You are worth what someone is willing to sacrifice for you.

Jesus sacrificed His life for you. God sacrificed His son for you. A thing is worth what someone is willing to sacrifice for it. In the eyes of the Divine, you are so worth it. God loves you and wants to be with you for all eternity. You are His most prized and beautiful creation. What are you willing to sacrifice for your soul? What are you willing to sacrifice for your child's soul? What are you willing to sacrifice for the soul of your spouse or friend? Well, consider this, the best thing that you can do for the sake of your soul, and the souls of those whom you love, is to have a relationship with Jesus. To be very clear, the best thing you can do for the sake of your soul and the soul of those whom you love is to bring them to Mass to partake in the best thing ever – Jesus Christ, Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity. What are you willing to sacrifice to do the best thing for yourself and for your loved ones?

God was willing to humble himself to be a human being, to suffer and die. You are pretty worth it to Him. Is He worth it to you? The God of all Creation, the giver of all that you have, the source of all goodness waits to learn through the example of our lives if He is worth it to us. We sacrifice for sports. We sacrifice for work. We sacrifice for any number of things, but is there the return in investment from those things that even comes close to having a relationship with God? Can sport or work bring you peace? Can sport or work bring you joy? Can sport or work give you eternal life in Heaven? So then, what are we doing here folks? In the secular world, everything and everyone is replaceable as one trend or one influencer is replaced by the next, yet we sacrifice our time and energy to these things all the time. We sacrifice our lives for those things that don't sacrifice for us. Why?

The first commandment says that we should not have false gods, yet we do it all the time. We do that because we are made for worship, but we worship what we are drawn to. So many of us are drawn to the wrong thing. It is time to check in. A thing is worth what someone is willing to sacrifice for it.

(This article was inspired by Fr. Mike Schmitz's homily for the 29th Sunday of Ordinary Time from 2024. It is the first of a 5 part series that can be viewed through Ascension Press.)

Do We Love Others as Jesus Loves Us?

On the heels of Valentine's Day some may still be eating chocolate from heart shaped boxes, while others may be disappointed that their spouse failed to do anything special at all. As I consider myself to be a "pragmatic romantic," the fact that my husband put his dirty clothes down the laundry chute on Friday is enough of a show of love for me! But in all candor, don't we have very complex ideas and expectations about what it means to "love" someone and what it means to BE loved? Jesus had no such complicated nuances for love. His love for us is unconditional. Abundant. Immediate. All Consuming. RADICAL. While most of us would willingly suffer and die for our closest loved ones, I imagine not as many of us would willingly suffer and die for a stranger. Jesus suffered and died for us. He forgives our most heinous sins when we repent. He loved us to death. It seems rather small of us when we can't even muster kind thoughts of someone who double parks at church or double-dips a chip in the guac (much less voted differently last fall). Loving others as Jesus loves us. Not easy at all. But at least we should try. ~With Love and Affection for our St. Dominic Community -Vivian Roe

Join the Welcome Team

Would you be willing to be a part of our Welcome Team?

What does a member of the Welcome Team do? Upon being matched with a new member, the welcome team calls to "welcome" the new member/family and provides an opportunity to answer any questions.

Is that it? Yes, but if the Spirit moves you to meet up with them or arrange a play date between your children, that would be wonderful! The hope is that you would then become an ambassador for the parish making sure our new members know what is happening here and feel welcomed in.

What's the catch? Don't be deceived, there is no catch. People simply want to feel like they belong and this is an effortless way to make that happen.

Are there any other requirements? Throughout the year, you may be invited to attend "Welcome Home" events that target our new families to foster a sense of belonging as well as feedback sessions with fellow team members.

Does this sound like something you would like to be a part of as a means of service to the parish? Have questions? Please contact Jill Fischer at jill.fischer@stdominic.net or 262.781.3480, Ext. 252.

GOING DEEPER

Today's Gospel Reading

Take a moment to sit with today's Gospel: Luke 6:17,20-26. Allow the Spirit to work in you, with you, and through you.

This week we hear of Jesus being before a large crowd of people again. He addresses them with blessings and woes. Do you identify your own life with the blessings or the woes that Jesus addresses?

Humanity experiences both highs and lows but when those experiences are united to the heart of Jesus there is nothing that can't be overcome. How does this passage demonstrate that?

Do you notice how Jesus blesses those our society often frowns upon and casts woes to those our society often celebrates? The Kingdom of God often looks like an inversion of what this world celebrates and condemns. What does it mean to be great according to Jesus? How can you grow in His version of greatness?

2025 Lenten Outreach—Be Christ for Others

St. Adalbert's Catholic Church

1923 W. Becher Street, Milwaukee.

St. Adalbert's Church was built in 1909 and was considered one of Milwaukee's Polish Cathedrals. The adjoining school was blessed with the School Sisters of Notre Dame, reaching its peak by 1924 when 1585 students were taught by 23 sisters. The school is now a Seton school. Today, St. Adalbert's is the home of the Hispanic Community of all ages. People from Mexico, Puerto Rico, and Nicaragua bring the best of their culture and enrich the parish family. The parish community has an average weekend Mass attendance of 1,800. The parish has a vibrant Marriage Enrichment Ministry, Women's and Men's groups, a Young Adult Group, a community service group, a liturgical group that focuses on special liturgies, and a large number of catechists forming people for the sacraments.

This growing community needs our help to repair and renew their campus to better serve their members. They are eager to learn how to care for their facility and to build community with us. Tasks include: painting, installing flooring, patching walls, installing weather stripping, organizing, cleaning and polishing items for the church.

THE LIFE OF JESUS THROUGH THE EYES OF ST. JOSEPH

The Seven Sorrows of St. Joseph

MARCH 3
4:45–6:00 PM

March 4
6:15–7:30 PM

We often consider Jesus's passion and death through the eyes of Mary, but there were also moments in Jesus's life that brought great sorrow to St. Joseph. As you begin your Lenten journey, contemplate the Seven Sorrows of St. Joseph through guided reflection, focused activities, faith-filled conversation, prayer, and Adoration tailored for individuals, couples, and families. Come, consider the life of Jesus through the eyes of St. Joseph. The evening will begin in the PAAC. There is no need to register.

What is experienced on Monday will be repeated on Tuesday.
