OUR VALUE: Embrace Compassion

We willingly forgive, serve, and sacrifice in love for one another.

Crossing the Street

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

It takes a cold, hard, godless heart to step over a wounded man on the street.

We all know the parable of the Good Samaritan, the priest, and the Levite who comes across a half-dead traveler. I think we picture them stepping over the man in our collective imagining of this story, but the words of the Gospel are quite clear. "When he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side," Jesus says of both.

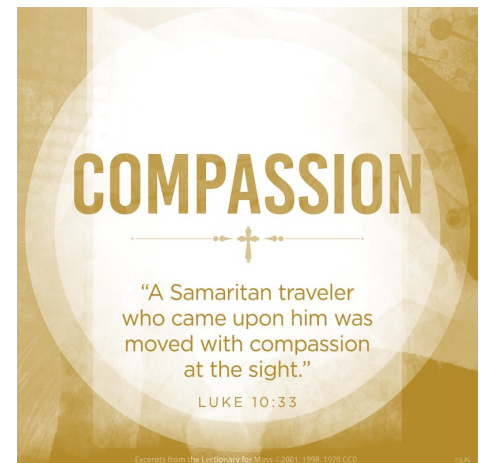

So they saw him. They saw his need. It made them uncomfortable; it confused them — many scholars have said that Judaic law concerning the touching of dead bodies might have made them reluctant to approach — and so they decided the simplest way to file this situation in the Not My Problem category was to cross the street.

But that still leaves a half-dead guy on the road. And we all, 2,000 years later, still think of the priest and the Levite as cold and hard and godless — even if they didn't want to be, even if they didn't think of themselves that way — because the bottom line is, they didn't see the half-dead guy as their problem.

As Christians we know that everyone is our neighbor. It's drilled into us from the first time we hear this story.

Well, I don't know about you, but I find myself crossing the street a lot more than I should.

There is so much pain and suffering in the world. We certainly can't begin to alleviate it all. But we have to start with the pain and the suffering that we see, that's right in front of us — even if it's something we really, really want to ignore. Even if we find it inconvenient or confusing or scary or weird.

The heroism of the Good Samaritan wasn't in his selfless actions, although those were certainly commendable. It was in his courage. "He approached the victim," Jesus said.

Can we approach the victims we see? Do we have that courage?

REFLECTION

Prayer: A Genuine Love Relationship

Prayer is a relationship of genuine love between us and God. In order to pray from the heart, we have to remind ourselves that God truly loves us. If we think God doesn't care about us, or is just waiting for us to mess up, or is removed and uninvolved, or angry with us, it's going to be pretty difficult for us to open our hearts to Him. But the Scriptures remind us, "God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us" (Romans 5:8). There's nothing you can do to earn (or to lose) God's love, but you can grow in your capacity to accept and respond to this great gift.

If you have been rejected, criticized, or trained to please others to receive love, it can be hard to accept the unconditional love God wants to give you. But He knows you better than you know yourself. And He loves you. He loved you into being. You are His beloved child. Sit in that truth. Let God love you today and every day.

Prayer suggestion: Through Baptism, we share in Jesus's identity as God's beloved child. Take a moment to sit in God's love. Turn off the noise and be still. Imagine Him looking at you with joy, cherishing you, being well pleased with you despite everything or because of everything.

What is this like for you? Is it beautiful and reassuring? Emotional? Difficult? Boring?

If you were to live without fear, in total confidence in God, what would that be like? How would you be different?

Tell God about any anxieties or doubts you have about being beloved by Him or anything else. Ask Him to give you more confidence in His love and care for you.

Prayer is not so much about giving, although sharing everything with God is so important, it is much more about receiving what He has to show you. You can't grow in that awareness unless you unburden yourself to Him. Remove the barriers created in your mind and heart to allow Him to enter in. Jesus is a perfect gentleman and will only do what you ask Him to do. He will only do so in faith. Spend time with Him in giving and in receiving. He is showing you your heart's desire, His desire. Pay attention. It may be more than what you bargained for.

Are you struggling to tune in to Jesus in your heart? Contact Jill Fischer, Director of Discipleship and Formation, for assistance at jill.fischer@stdominic.net or 262.781.3480, Ext. 252.

SERVE

Altar Linen Care Volunteers Needed

The linens used for the celebration of the Mass are a sign of reverence for the Eucharist and the sacredness of our worship. We are seeking volunteers to help launder and iron these linens (corporals and purificators). This quiet and very much unnoticed act of service is a beautiful way to support the liturgy, and care for the heart of our parish life. If you are able to assist, please contact Paul Burzynski at paul.burzynski@stdominic.net or 262.781.3480, Ext. 240.

GIVE ONLINE

Sharing our Blessings

Our parish is truly blessed with a spirit of generosity. Each day we witness our members' dedication and joy in making sacrifices for the sake of God and others. Generosity is not only measured in terms of our treasure, but also in the offering of our God-given time and talents.

Through your financial support of our parish, you pass on the faith to our children, share in the joy of weddings and baptisms, comfort the sick, console the grieving, and support others in need. Financial giving is one way for each of us to grow in holiness.

GOING DEEPER

Today's Gospel Reading

Take a moment to sit with today's Gospel: Jn 3:13-17. Allow the Spirit to work in you, with you, and through you.

In this passage, Jesus tells Nicodemus that those who believe will not die, but have eternal life in heaven. Nicodemus struggled to understand what he could not directly see, which included life after death and eternal life. Do you believe in what you can see or believe in what you learn/know/are told?

Have you ever truly stopped to think about the fact that God sent His Son Jesus into the world because He loves you that much? From the very beginning when man and woman sinned, God had a plan to save humanity and redeem us. Do you find it hard to believe that God loves you this much? If so, why? This week, take a few minutes to ask Jesus to help you to know the deep love of the Father in your life.

CATECHISTS & CORE TEAM MEMBERS NEEDED!

If your prayer results in even the smallest prompting to assist in, please contact Jill Fischer at jill.fischer@stdominic.net or 262.781.3480, Ext 252.

We are grateful for those who have stepped forward to engage in using their gifts in service to our young people. Thank you!

ST. DOMINIC CATHOLIC SCHOOL

All School Mass Seating Change

Beginning this year, our school students will sit together with their class for our Wednesday All School Masses. This allows teachers to have better eyes on all their students in the event of a drill or an emergency. We have buddies that will sit with the littles to help model church behavior and build community. We know this might be a change for some kids who were used to sitting with their parents before. With all new change, it takes time to feel comfortable. Thank you for your understanding and support.

OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

Litany, Explained!

A litany is an ancient form of prayer incorporating repetitive refrains (often "hear our prayer" or "pray for us"). Litanies are used in a variety of liturgical settings and in both private and public acts of devotion.

The basis of the word "litany" comes from the Greek word for "supplication" or "petition." In a litany, the leader will make an appeal or a statement and the congregation will make the response. Litanies can also be said by one person acting as both the leader and the respondent.

Many litanies have been written, including litanies to the Holy Name of Jesus, the Sacred Heart, the Most Precious Blood, litanies appealing to the intercession of various saints, and litanies to the Blessed Mother under her different titles. There are also litanies composed for the attainment of graces and virtues, including the Litany of Humility and the Litany of Trust.

2025 ~ 2026 KICKOFF EVENT!

It Takes A Village

WITH TALIA WESTERBY

So often our lives demand that we keep our heads down and stay focused on what is in front of us. When we live like this, we have the potential to miss all that God has in store for us. We are called to live in relationship: with God and with each other. Through opening Scripture, personal testimony, time for personal reflection, and prayer, we will dive into this idea of the fullness of what God has for us in this life!

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 2025

DOORS OPEN AT 6:30PM

PROGRAM BEGINS AT 7:00PM

PARISH ARTS & ACTIVITIES CENTER (PAAC)

AN RSVP IS REQUIRED BY THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 25.
