MISSION. VISION. VALUES

OUR VALUE: Pursue Holiness

We surrender ourselves to God's continual conversion of heart, mind, and soul.

Sparking Holiness

As the seasons change, a lot of us like to clean out our homes and unload some of the junk we've acquired over the summer. One trendy approach to decluttering is the Marie Kondo method, named after the author who popularized it. Overly simplified, it's a process that compels you to go through your closets, your garage, your basement — all the places you collect the dreaded "stuff." As you do so, you hold up the items and ask yourself: "Does it spark joy?"

It's a question that is bold in its simplicity. In answering, you're supposed to go with your gut. If it's a quick "Yes, it sparks joy," the item should be kept. If the answer is no, it gets tossed.

There are people in life who will support our efforts to do God's will. There are those who will, as Paul says,

"convince, reprimand, (and) encourage," unafraid of the reaction we give them. There are those who will shore up our defenses when the battle goes longer than we thought.

The same goes for hobbies and pastimes. There are those that will ennoble our minds and bring us closer to God. And there are also those that will drain our funds and our free time, with nothing to show for it.

During these autumn months, don't just declutter your basement in preparation for the hauling out of the Christmas ornaments. Take stock of the people and pursuits that make up your life. With each one, ask yourself: "Does it spark holiness?"

If the answer is yes, thank God that our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. If the answer is no, maybe it's time to declutter.

BOOK DISCUSSION

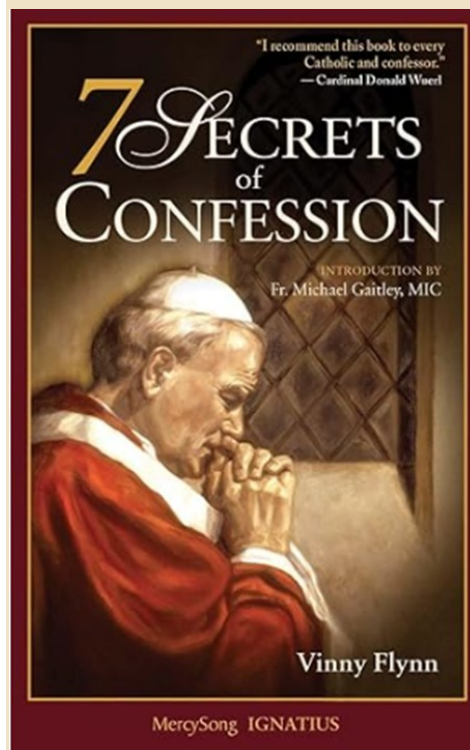

Tuesday Time-out

7 Secrets of Confession

November 18 | 6:15-7:30 PM | Parish Arts & Activities Center

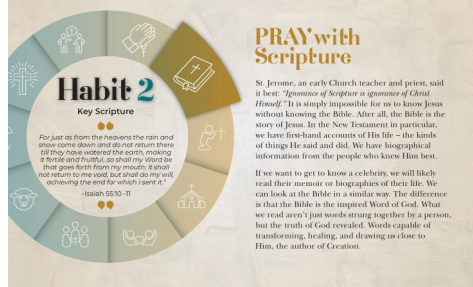

All adults are welcome to join in the discussion of the book, "7 Secrets of Confession," by Vinny Flynn. Interested individuals are to acquire the book and read it before attending.

About the book: This book reveals 7 key secrets or hidden truths about the great spiritual beauty, power, and depth of Confession. The understanding that many Catholics have of the Sacrament of Confession is so limited and narrow in focus that it keeps them from discovering the real beauty and value of the Sacrament—beauty and value that even a young child can understand if presented properly.

REFLECTION

Emergency Numbers

When starting to pray with Scripture, it helps to have some guidance, at least to have some passages to begin with. Many years ago, 24 to be exact, I tucked a little piece of paper away in my Bible that was titled “Emergency Numbers.” This little piece of paper listed several passages one could read and pray with in certain situations.

How to use: Look up the passage. Utilize the Notice, Tell, Invite, Listen method for prayer introduced last month. Notice what you are experiencing. Tell God all about it. Invite God to show you what you should do. READ THE PASSAGE, Listen for what God reveals to you.

- When in sorrow: John 14
- When people fail you: Psalm 27
- When you have sinned: Psalm 15
- When you worry: Matthew 6:19-34
- When you are in danger: Psalm 91
- When God seems far away: Psalm 139
- When your faith needs stirring: Hebrews 11
- When you are lonely and fearful: Psalm 23
- When you grow bitter and critical: 1 Corinthians 13
- When you feel down and out: Romans: 8:31
- When you want peace and rest: Matthew 11:25-30
- When the world seems bigger than God: Psalm 90
- When you want Christian

assurance: Romans 8:1-30

- When you leave home for work or travel: Psalm 121
- When your prayers grow narrow or selfish: Psalm 67
- When you want courage for a task: Joshua 1
- When you think of investments and returns: Mark 10
- If you are depressed: Psalm 27
- If your pocketbook is empty: Psalm 37
- If you are losing confidence in people: 1 Corinthians 13
- If people seem unkind: John 15
- If discouraged about your work: Psalm 126
- If self pride/greatness takes hold: Psalm 19
- If you want to be fruitful: John 15
- For understanding of Christianity: 2 Corinthians 5:15-19
- For great invention/opportunity: Isaiah 55
- For how to get along with fellow human beings: Romans 12
- For Paul's secret to happiness: Colossians 3:12-17
- For dealing with fear: Psalm 34:7
- For security: Psalm 121:3
- For assurance: Mark 8:35
- For reassurance: Psalm 145:18

STEWARDSHIP APPEAL

2026 St. Dominic Stewardship Appeal

The Joy of Generosity

Everything we have is a gift from God. Generosity is our joyful response to His abundance—giving with open hearts and hands.

Generosity is our 2026 Stewardship Appeal theme. Generosity isn't just financial, it's an act of worship and an expression of trust in God's provision. The heartbeat of our appeal is to reach more people with God's love. We believe each of us has a role in this mission.

Prayerfully consider what return to the Lord you will give to support St. Dominic Catholic Parish, your spiritual home. Every gift counts!

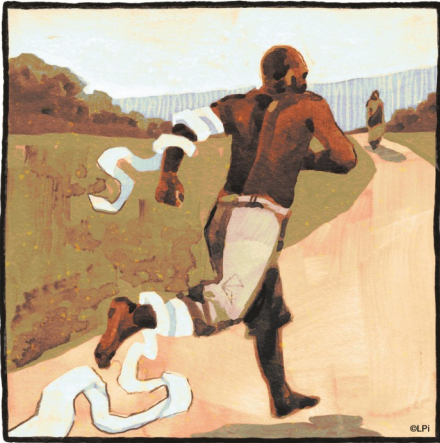

Watch for your stewardship materials arriving in the mail shortly.

Commitment Weekend is October 25/26.

GOING DEEPER

Today's Gospel Reading

Take a moment to sit with today's Gospel: Lk 17:11-19. Allow the Spirit to work in you, with you, and through you.

The lepers were healed "as they went." What does this show us about obedience and trust in experiencing God's work?

Time and time again in Scripture, we hear Jesus say to people that their faith has saved them. In this passage, we see the connection between faith in Jesus and the salvation of souls. Have you ever thought about how your faith in God could or could not bring about your salvation?

Today's Gospel reminds us of the importance of being grateful to God, because all that we are and all that we have are gifts from Him. How easy it is to forget to thank God for all that He provides! When was the last time you gave God proper praise and thanks? What can you do to make that a more frequent occurrence?

All high school teens are welcome to join us for our Life Teen and EDGE nights.

OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

Creeds, Explained!

Most Catholics can recite at least portions of the Nicene and Apostles' Creed by heart — but though these are perhaps the best-known two creeds of modern times, Church tradition has yielded many more.

A creed (from the Latin "credo," meaning "I believe") is a summary of the most important articles of faith agreed upon by a group of people who hold them as truth. Tradition attributes authorship of the Apostles' Creed to Christ's 12 Apostles. The Nicene Creed originated at the first worldwide ecumenical council in Nicaea in 325 AD. The Athanasian Creed is another famous statement of belief approved by the Church, this one focusing particularly on the matter of the Holy Trinity.

All approved creeds fulfill Christ's Great Commission to "make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19) and the need for Christians to "always be prepared to make a defense to anyone who calls you to account for the hope that is in you" (1 Peter 3:15).
