REFLECTION

Hope Beyond Hope

I lost my wallet this year. It was such an annoyance to replace everything in it. A friend, moved by sympathy, gave me a beautiful new one. One month later I lost that one, too, with all my newly replaced cards. No matter what I did, I couldn't find what I had lost. I resigned myself to never seeing either of my wallets again.

Fortunately, the Lord Jesus is not like me in this regard. In today's Gospel (John 6:37–40), he says, "This is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me." Jesus, unlike me, is ever vigilant with what the Father has given him. He searches for every lost soul — as the shepherd leaves the ninety-nine to pursue the one lost sheep, or the woman rejoices upon recovering a lost coin — and even descends to the depths of loss on the cross and into the realm of the dead to recover that which seems forever lost.

On All Souls' Day, as we remember our faithful departed, these words kindle a hope beyond hope in our hearts. Even the dead are not lost to Jesus, though they may seem so to us. Nothing entrusted to him by the Father is ever truly lost. So, we may hope that every soul, no matter how wandering or forgotten in life, is secure in his loving care and destined to be raised on the last day. Of what the Father gives him, he loses nothing.

Habit #3: Repent & Believe

This weekend, we will distribute the third Habit of a Disciple: REPENT & BELIEVE. The deep work of understanding our sins is an essential part of our daily life of prayer. For God's love and mercy to flow through us, we have to bring these things to light and believe in His ability to make us whole.

Habit #2 Stickers: If you have created a new habit, or maintained your already formed habit of Praying with Scripture, you can pick up a sticker in the narthexes to place on your 10 Habits Master Card. Track your progress as we continue to open ourselves to His transforming grace!

REPENT & BELIEVE—HABIT #3

Repentance? Believe...in what?

As disciples building spiritual habits, we must take heed of a very particular message that is sprinkled throughout Scripture – repent and believe. To repent is to feel or express sincere regret or remorse about one's wrongdoing. To believe, in the sense of this habit, is to accept as true the healing that comes from reconciliation with God through the sacrament. This requires courage, humility, and commitment.

First, this habit requires courage because there is nothing more uncomfortable than having to admit you aren't perfect. However, consider this: good habits can feel bad at first. Owning our faults, the good habit, can elicit a level of nerves that is uncomfortable, in addition to the anticipated consequence of being held accountable. The discomfort is what feels bad. Many things that feel good temporarily, such as pleasures or vices, are ultimately bad for us. Such a conundrum! This is why many of us don't like admitting it when we do something wrong – it is the right thing to do but feels uncomfortable. We would rather hide much like Adam and Eve. God never intended this for us. If you recall, He walked with Adam and Eve in friendship just like He wants to do with you. Don't hide. Be courageous.

Second, this habit requires humility because one must recognize the disordered nature of our soul and mind. That is uncomfortable. We have intentionally put vice in front of a virtue and must realign ourselves with what God wants for us.

Repentance puts things back in proper perspective and forces us to stay there or at least work to stay there. Repentance is a radical turning around, a change of ones' perspective and entire direction away from sin and evil, towards goodness and God (10:10 Challenge, Andre Lesperance and Andrea Jackson, Evangelical Catholic, 2024, p. 81). When we make gods of ourselves or other things, this realization propels us to humility. Not sure you understand? Take a look at the Litany of Humility, it might help.

Third, this habit requires commitment. A commitment to being better, not for God's sake, but for your own. Salvation depends on our ability to humble ourselves before God. By the mere fact of our Baptism, we are united to God, but more is required. More is desired. Remember, Adam and Eve were not alone with God. There was another being there who is also vying for your attention. As St. Peter exhorts, "Be sober and vigilant. Your opponent the devil is prowling around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. Resist him, steadfast in faith, knowing that your fellow believers throughout the world undergo the same sufferings" (1 Peter 5:8-9). It doesn't take much for the devil to sway us. Once he does, he has a foothold. Don't give it to him. Repent and believe.

Remember, you are not alone in this challenge. Need help? Contact Jill Fischer, at jill.fischer@stdominic.net or 262.781.3480, Ext. 252.

GOING DEEPER

Today's Gospel Reading

Take a moment to sit with today's Gospel: John 6:37-40. Spend some time pondering these questions today or throughout the week. Feel free to discuss them with others, reflect on them, or journal about them as part of your daily prayer. Do as many or as few as you wish. Allow the Spirit to work in you, with you, and through you.

What does today's Gospel tell you about Jesus's purpose? What is your purpose?

Jesus speaks about how He has come to do the will of the Father. Are you doing the will of God the Father in your life? Do you know what the will of God the Father is for your life? Ask Him, "What is your will for my life, and help me to have an open heart to follow it."

There is a common phrase that goes "not in my timing but in God's timing." How does this passage reflect that phrase?

Is Your Child Baptized?

Children under the age of 7 are able to be welcomed into the Church at any time. Children 7 years of age or older are welcomed into the Church through the Order of Christian Initiation for Children. This Order prepares a child to receive all Sacraments of Initiation at one time (Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation). If your child has been baptized but reception of Reconciliation and Eucharist has been delayed, they are able to receive the sacraments after proper formation. Please contact Jill Fischer at 262.781.3480, Ext. 252 for a conversation.

OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

PRAYER FOR THE DEAD

Prayer for the Dead, Explained

It may seem strange to pray for someone who is already dead and who, according to our earthly reckoning of time, has already undergone judgment. But God is not subject to the constrictions of time as we understand them. Our prayers for the dead are, like our prayers for the living, an expression of charity and the unity that exists between all members of the Body of Christ.

"By virtue of the 'communion of saints,' the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers, especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf," says the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 1055).

The most common Catholic prayer for the dead is as follows: "Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace."

Tuesday Time-Out Book Discussion

November 18, 2025 from 6:15-7:30 PM

All adults are welcome to join in the discussion of the book "7 Secrets of Confession," by Vinny Flynn. Interested individuals are to purchase and read the book prior to attending.

ABOUT THE BOOK: This book reveals 7 key secrets or hidden truths about the great spiritual beauty, power, and depth of Confession. The understanding that many Catholics have of the Sacrament of Confession is so limited and narrow in its focus that it keeps them from discovering the real beauty and value of this Sacrament -- beauty and value that even a young child can understand if it's presented properly. For too many Catholics, Confession is just a means to an end: cleaning us up from sin so we can receive Communion. But, as Pope Francis tells us, Confession is much more than going to the dry cleaner. It's an encounter with Jesus, who waits for us as we are. In his years of speaking all over North America, Flynn saw that many Catholics have this limited appreciation of Confession, and the urgent need for clear teaching about this great Sacrament. If you have not yet experienced Confession as a wonderful, personal encounter with Christ, if you do not yet look forward to going to Confession with the same eagerness and expectation with which you receive Holy Communion, this book is for you. It will be a whole new way of going to Confession, inviting you to begin an exciting personal journey to healing and holiness. It may change your life.

Please contact Jill Fischer, Director of Discipleship and Formation, with any questions at jill.fischer@stdominic.net or at 262.781.3480, Ext. 252.

Holiday Grief Share is the perfect way to care for oneself and honor the person who has died.

Sunday, November 9

All are welcome!

INHERITANCE 2025

STEP INTO THE TRUE, GOOD, AND BEAUTIFUL

NOVEMBER 15, 2025

You were made good. You were made for greatness. You were made by a good Father who has great hopes and dreams for you. He is intimately invested in your life, from the small details and daily routines to the grandest adventures. He wants to be there by your side through it all; nothing and no one is too far from Him. Often in daily life, we either forget this truth and don't live in this reality or have an obscured vision of what it means to live as a son or daughter of the Father.

In this Sacred year of Jubilee, Brew City Catholic invites you to the Inheritance Conference to rediscover the reality for which you were made. Live securely in the abundance of your inheritance, be renewed and reinvigorated through times of prayer, the wisdom of speakers, and the witness and community of other young adults.
