Ignatian Volunteer Corp.	The Ignatian Volunteer Corps (IVC) provides mature men and women the opportunity to serve the needs of people who are poor, to work for a more just society, and to grow deeper in Christian faith by reflecting and praying in the Ignatian tradition.	lvcusa.org	VC National 740 N Calvert St # 500 Baltimore MD 21202 410-752-4686	IVC offers adults the opportunity to serve in community-based organizations while also engaging in a process of spiritual reflection and growth. The program is rooted in the Ignatian spiritual tradition and aims to help corps members grow in their faith, become more aware of the needs of the poor, and develop a deeper sense of purpose and direction in their lives.	IVC Milwaukee began in September 2016 with 4 generous individuals who wanted to make a difference in our community. Since then, we have grown into a dynamic service corps of 30 members serving in schools, food pantries, justice organizations, prison ministry, immigration support, housing, with disabled adults, and at-risk youth! Our members come from a wide variety of backgrounds and professions. They share a strong desire to serve those in need, improve social conditions in our city, and deepen their faith in the Ignatian tradition. IVC members generally serve one or two days per week, 10 months per year. Community serving partner organizations provide IVC members with meaningful work. Service placements are broad in scope and can include roles in administration, counseling, legal services, project management, teaching, finance, technology, and others.

Pro Life Wisconsin (Love for Life)	Pro-Life Wisconsin exists for a singular purpose: to restore and protect the inalienable right to life of all citizens of our state, whether born or preborn, young, old, disabled, or terminally ill. We affirm that the right to life exists from the moment of conception and extends until natural death; this truth being handed down by God and articulated in the Declaration of Independence.	https://www.prolifewi.org	15850 W. Wade , a new statewide legislative and educational pro-life organization was formed in Wisconsin. The vision for this new organization was shared by dedicated and experienced pro-lifers who realized that the pro-life movement needed to refocus on principle to achieve total protection for all preborn children. Pro-Life Wisconsin is that organization. Founded on the bedrock principle of the pro-life movement – that all preborn babies are "persons" and all persons share the inalienable right to life – Pro-Life Wisconsin educates the public and lobbies elected officials. Believing that "it is never the will of the Father in heaven that one of these little ones should be lost" (Matthew 18:14), Pro-Life Wisconsin is a Christian organization relying on God to change hearts and minds toward His most precious creation of human life.
