REFLECTION

Paul Burzynski is no stranger to parish liturgical life. After serving the people of God at St. Stanislaus, the Basilica of St. Josaphat, St. Martin of Tours, and St. Rita, he is grateful to serve St. Dominic Catholic Parish, as we gather around the altar to give glory to the Almighty. May God continue his work in and through us all.

Holy Ground

“Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? ...for the temple of God, which you are, is holy.”

— 1 Corinthians

This weekend the Church celebrates the Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica—the cathedral of the Bishop of Rome, our Holy Father Leo XIV, the Pope. Many people think St. Peter’s Basilica is the pope’s main church, but it’s actually St. John Lateran that holds that honor. It’s called the “mother church” of all Catholic churches in the world, a sign of our unity with the successor of St. Peter and with the universal Church.

When my family and I visited the Lateran Basilica in 2018, we were struck not only by its beauty and history, but by the sense of standing in the heart of the Church. Truly, holy ground. Beneath its grand arches and ancient mosaics, one could almost hear the prayers of countless generations who have worshiped or made pilgrimage there before us. It reminded me that the Church isn’t just one place—it’s all of us, united in Christ across time and space.

Today’s readings bring that truth home. Ezekiel describes water flowing from the temple, bringing life wherever it goes. St. Paul reminds us, “You are God’s building... the temple of the Holy Spirit.” And in the Gospel, Jesus speaks of His body as the new temple, raised up in three days.

Just as the Lateran Basilica is holy because it houses the Body of Christ, we too are made holy when we receive Him in the Eucharist. Christ dwells in us! Our bodies become living temples, which enables us to bring His love and light into the world.

As we celebrate this feast, let’s honor both our church buildings and the sacred dwelling of our own hearts. May we always be living stones in God’s house—strong in faith, united in love, and alive with His presence.

Loving God, you have made your Church a living temple, built of people from every nation and place. As we celebrate this feast, unite us more closely to you and to our Holy Father, the successor of Peter. Fill our hearts with your Spirit, that we may be holy dwellings of your presence and signs of your love to the world. Amen. Happy Sunday, friends!

Thank you to our Advertisers!

REPENT & BELIEVE

The Sacrament of Reconciliation

An important element to this month's habit of discipleship is the Sacrament of Reconciliation. If you haven't been to confession in a while, I invite you to have courage, humility, and commitment to this month's habit by giving it a try. Allow me to share these suggestions from Luisa Restrepo for ChurchPOP.com.

1.) Examine your conscience sincerely. Use tools such as the Ten Commandments, the Beatitudes, or a set of examination questions to guide your reflection. Setting aside a few minutes each day for self-reflection will make each confession clearer and more thorough. See our website for sample exams at <https://stdominic.net/10habits>

If your examination of conscience is rushed or superficial, you may forget important sins or overlook patterns of behavior that keep leading you into the same sins.

2) Sorrow for our sins (contrition). Be sorry for having offended God—not just out of fear of punishment, but out of love for Him and a desire to grow in that love. If your main concern is avoiding hell or preserving your image, your focus is still on yourself rather than on God.

3) Confess with clarity and honesty. Once you've prepared, find a priest and a confessional. Confession is a dialogue in which the priest listens and offers guidance and counsel. Name your sins without justifying, hiding, or downplaying them.

Deliberately omitting a serious sin renders the confession invalid. If you feel embarrassed, remember that the priest acts in persona Christi (in the person of Christ) and he, too, goes to confession.

4) Complete your penance. Carry out the penance the priest assigns as soon as possible, with a spirit of reparation and reconciliation. If you forget or delay, do it as soon as you remember, even if some time has passed.

5) Have a firm purpose of amendment. Even if you might fall again, approach confession with the genuine intention to change your habits and avoid situations that lead you to sin. If you confess without any real desire to change, your confession loses sincerity and becomes empty.

A quick self-check before you leave the confessional:

- Did I prepare with prayer and a thorough examination of conscience?
- Was I honest and clear about my sins?
- Did I feel sincere repentance?
- Do I truly want to change and avoid sin?
- Did I complete my penance?

The Sacrament of Confession restores the grace lost through sin, strengthens us for the journey ahead, and keeps us humble and ready to follow God's plan for our lives.

GOING DEEPER

Today's Gospel Reading

Take a moment to sit with today's Gospel: John 2:13-22. Allow the Spirit to work in you, with you, and through you.

Today's Gospel can be controversial in that we see Jesus grow angry and frustrated. Or was he? Some may argue that this was an intentional plan to grab everyone's attention. What do you think?

The purpose of the temple was a place of prayer and worship, not to become a marketplace or to be a showplace before entering the temple. Have you ever put the things and activities of life ahead of prayer and worship of the Lord?

Jesus says our bodies are temples. When you consider this, does your outside accurately reflect your inside? What does your temple say about your relationship with God? Are you needing to make changes?

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY

Young Adult Group

Are you a young adult in your 20s and 30s? Young adult parishioner McKenna Scott has been leading a growing Bible study at St. Dominic, and we'd love to welcome more faces!

OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

Simbang Gabi, Explained

Simbang Gabi is a Filipino tradition that originated in the 17th century through which Advent expectation realizes the fulfillment of Christmas joy. During Simbang Gabi, early morning Masses are offered over a series of nine days leading up to Christmas. Celebrations follow Mass, where delicacies like baked rice cakes and breakfast rolls are enjoyed.

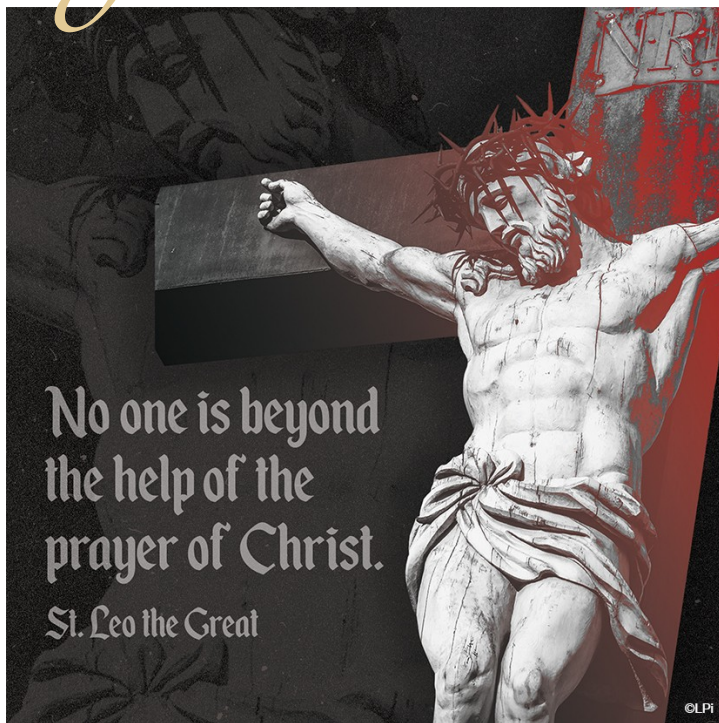

During Mass, the priest wears white vestments and the Gloria is sung, a practice for which the Holy See has given special permission. Traditionally, the nine-day sequence ends with Midnight Mass on December 24.

The tradition has been adapted to fit the needs of Filipino communities throughout the world, and the Masses might not even be offered in the morning at all, but in the afternoon or evening.

Advent Giving Tree Tags

Join our parish family in caring for those in need this Christmas season!

We are continually reminded of the many reasons we have to be thankful.
St. Francis says, "It is in giving that we receive."

Through our Advent Giving Tree we help organizations provide for their clients in need. It is in the spirit of Christmas that we want to be a blessing to others.**

Giving Tree Tags in Narthexes: November 15/16 and 22/23

Choose a tag, shop, and attach the colored tag firmly to the unwrapped gift.

Gift Return Dates: December 6 & 7

(Please do not drop off gifts before these dates.

Any gifts received after December 7 will not be forwarded to the organizations.)

Drive-up Gift Drop-off:

Saturday, December 6 | 9:00 AM-12:00 PM

Drive-up and drop-off your gifts at the north church parking lot, Door 16N or bring gifts to the church narthexes on December 6/7 by 12:00 Noon.

**See the list of charitable organizations that we will be supporting this Christmas with Giving Tree on the reverse side.

Thank you for your generosity!

The Vincentian Calling

St. Dominic Conference

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel, Jesus promises if the temple is destroyed, He will raise it up again in three days. This is the true hope He offers.

When you give the furniture, household items and clothing you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you give a sign of hope to your neighbors who have nothing.

We want to thank St. Dominic parishioners for their generous support and donations in recent months. Your monetary donations, plus the items you donated to fill the St. Vincent de Paul truck, and school supplies all go to support your neighbors in need.

The St. Dominic conference of St. Vincent de Paul recently completed its annual report summary. We were able to do 51 home visits and the vast majority of that was to provide assistance to keep a roof over someone's head. We would not be able to do that without your help.

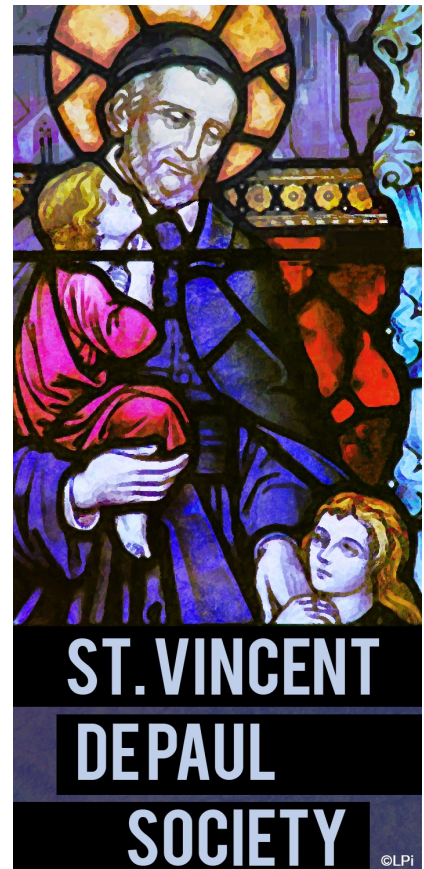

One of our recent success stories is a woman who contacted us in September looking for rental assistance. She was in danger of being evicted from her Brookfield apartment. She has two teenage children. With our support she has managed to find a more affordable apartment without an eviction on her record. She was able to keep her children in the same school system. With other resources we were able to connect her with a program where she is able to obtain her CNA so that she can get a better job.

Here at St. Dominic, we have recently reviewed our stewardship commitments. There are numerous different activities and services that St. Vincent de Paul does that could enhance that commitment. Even if you would just like more information, please consider joining us at one of our meetings to see what we are about.

Again, we thank you for all of your donations and assistance. They truly provide hope to those neighbors who need it.

Is there a family or individual you know who needs assistance? Please have them contact the St. Dominic's Conference of St. Vincent de Paul at: 262.781.3480 EXT. 600. All information provided is treated confidentially, and the privacy of those we serve is always protected.

We are always looking for more people to assist us in our mission. There is training and support from our members and our Waukesha Council. Contact Cat Boerschinger at 262.873.0492 or email svdp.stdominic@outlook.com for more information.

Together, we "become Christ" for others.
