MISSION, VISION, VALUES

OUR VALUE: Pursue Holiness

We surrender ourselves to God's continual conversion of heart, mind, and soul.

7 Steps to Holiness

We are called to be saints. The only alternative is too awful to think about: an eternity separated from God. In order to become saints, we must pursue holiness in our lives. We must seek to live authentic Catholic lives, seeking God's will in all we do.

You might ask: how do I become holy? Here are 7 steps you can take to achieve holiness:

1. We must desire holiness. We are called to be holy. We are called to be saints. What is more important to you than becoming holy?
2. We must surrender our lives to Jesus. When we seek God with all our hearts, hunger and thirst for Him, we will receive the grace for holiness.
3. We must repent of our weakness and sins on an ongoing basis. We must seek God's mercy and be merciful to others. Have we forgiven ourselves? Have we forgiven others?
4. We must ask for faith, faith that moves mountains and leads us to deeper holiness. Through faith we experience miracles and the mercy of God. Faith, through the love of Jesus, heals us.

5. We must learn to pray fervently, to pray from our hearts, beginning with praising God for who He is. Prayer and praise lead us to be thankful for what God has done for us. We are connected to God through prayer, praise, and the sacraments; we are doing His will. When we do the will of God, we live in holiness.
6. We must love fervently. Ask God to teach you how to love. It is the most important act you can perform. It starts with God teaching you how to open your heart to receive the love God has for you.
7. To be holy means you are living a sacramental life. It requires leading a life in which you hunger and thirst for the Mass and Eucharist.

Have the courage not to compromise your desire for holiness. God has called us to be holy, He has called us to Himself and wants to give us every spiritual gift and blessing in the heavens.

(Excerpts from Deacon Steve Greco, <https://www.stclementromeo.org/seven-steps-to-holiness>.)

REPENT & BELIEVE

Distractions & Excuses

The habit of repenting and believing is a challenge. There is no measuring stick for how well you do it apart from your own growth. Are you making progress? Have you challenged yourself in new ways to align yourself with Jesus? As you progress in striving to give God full access, do not be discouraged or surprised by distractions. The devil will try to talk you out of these good habits in your own head, using your own voice. That said, consider this:

God is not surprised by your past; so don't waste your time trying to hide those facts from Him.

God is not shocked by your present distractions and impurities; He sees them before they are even on your mind.

God is not worried about your future, so keep it in His hands.

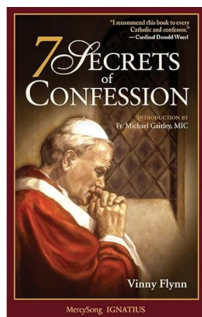

The best you can do with distractions you encounter, as you prepare a quiet place to welcome the desired guest of your soul, is to give those distraction straight to God.

Remember our first habit, pray every day. The technique of Notice, Tell, Invite, Listen, has this built right in! Notice that you are distracted, tell God about it, and invite Him to help you get over it. If you can't leave your distractions at the door, bring them in with you and give them to God! Remember a distraction is something that keeps you from the desired goal. It is something to persevere through. An excuse, however, gives you permission to return to what you find more immediately gratifying. Excuses are the devil actively at work. Both distractions and excuses must be rejected when striving to be a better disciple.

Much of the content from today's column is from And You Will Find Rest: What God Does in Prayer, by Fr. Wayne Sattler, Sophia Institute Press, 2024, p. 135f.

Are you being challenged by this habit? Do you need help? Please contact Jill Fischer, Director of Discipleship and Formation, at jill.fischer@stdominic.net or 262.781.3480, Ext. 252.

Don't forget the book discussion below!

7 Secrets of Confession

God Bless You!

Have you ever noticed that our culture has lost some of the simple courtesies and small acts of kindness of previous generations? Holding doors for others, handwritten thank you notes, giving up a seat for someone elderly or a mom with a child, and saying, "God bless you" when someone sneezes. These little things fall by the wayside when neighbors barely know each other and our faces are too busy looking at hand-held devices to even notice what is happening around us. Let's start noticing again. This Thanksgiving, and in the coming season of hope, let's embrace and model kind courtesies, etiquette of the past, and old-fashioned good manners.

Thank you, You're welcome, and God Bless You!

GOING DEEPER

Today's Gospel Reading

Take a moment to sit with today's Gospel: Luke 21: 5-19. Allow the Spirit to work in you, with you, and through you.

How do you see yourself in relationship to God at this time? What are the highs and lows of your relationship, and how can you take it to the next level of prayer and strength?

Take time to dig into this Gospel again. You are the "you." Sit in the space of prayer asking God how He needs you to withstand the test that comes with being a disciple. Do you have a relationship with Jesus to be able to persevere?

When you read this, you may start to think that this sounds a lot like what is happening now. What hope does this passage provide? Where is your focus?

Reread verse 8. How are you letting the world deceive you and lead you away from Jesus? What do you need to do so as not to be deceived any longer?

Young Adults

WELCOME CLAIRE STOIBER!

Dear parishioners,

As we began our search for a new high school minister, we decided to better serve our teens through two ministers—one who would focus on Life Teen, working to transition students into high school, and another to focus on our older high school teens as they prepare for Confirmation and the transition into adult life.

We are happy to announce we have hired Claire Stoiber as our new High School Confirmation and Early Adult Minister. She will be responsible for the older teens. She will target sacramental preparation, junior and senior discipleship and leadership, and early adults (18-22 year olds). Claire will be present at Life Teen with a special eye on our juniors and seniors in attendance.

Claire has 15 years of high school ministry at St. John Vianney, Catholic Memorial High School, and St. Jerome. She and her husband, Robert, were members of St. Dominic prior to moving to Eau Claire during Covid, returning to the area a little over a year ago with their son, Charlie. Claire is excited to begin her ministry with us. Please welcome Claire to our St. Dominic family.

OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

ADVENT WREATH

Advent Wreath, Explained

The Advent Wreath as we know it today is a modern spin on an ancient practice — or rather, several of them.

Christians have always utilized candles to illustrate the metaphor of Christ as the “great light” shining on a people waiting in darkness (Isaiah 9:2). Historians tell us that pre-Christian societies in Europe also viewed candles as symbolic of the coming light of spring, and may have used wreaths of natural material along with these candles.

An Advent Wreath consists of a circle of evergreen and four candles, one for each week of Advent. Three of the candles are purple; one is rose, representing Gaudete Sunday, a time of rejoicing at the closeness of Christmas. In Catholicism, Advent Wreaths are blessed on the First Sunday of Advent. For Advent Wreaths in private homes, it is appropriate for a family member to perform the blessing.

Women's Morning Retreat

The Gift Exchange: This Advent, as we prepare our hearts for the birth of Christ, the greatest gift of all, we'll take a closer look at the gifts God has already placed within us—gifts that are too often hidden or unused. Through reflection, prayer, and inspiring talks, this half-day women's retreat will invite us to unwrap what we've received and step into The Gift Exchange: offering ourselves in simple, everyday ways that bring Christ's love to others.

The morning will include witness talks, table conversation, and time for Adoration. Light refreshments will be served.
