

Faith
Hope
Love

Encourage your younger children to listen to the pastor too! They certainly won't catch everything, but they can catch something! As they listen, ask them to draw pictures of anything they hear. After church, use their drawings to spark conversation about some of the truths you learned this morning.
