Ordinary Time

Confessions are heard one half-hour prior to each Mass.

“With each reception of Holy Communion, we experience, already here on earth, the same divine activity that we will one day experience in all its fullness in heaven- the divine activity of love eternally taking place within the Trinity.... We are called to be dwelling places for the Holy Trinity and to enter into a personal relationship with each of the persons in God.” - Vinney Flynn, 7 Secrets of the Eucharist

SF Parish Hall Air Conditioning Project

Received/Cost of AC Project: $48,668/$57,000

Amount Needed: $ 8,332

Thank you to those who have given so generously to this cause!! Because of contributions from organizations, non-parishioners and parishioners alike, St. Francis is more than halfway to its goal. If you would like to donate to the repair of the Parish Hall air conditioning unit, please write your check to St. Francis with the designation to the Parish Hall. Mail to PO Box 626, Loup City, or feel free to leave in the weekend offering plate as well. Thank you!
