Baltimore-Washington Conference of The United Methodist Church

About

United Methodists hold a unique place in our culture. Our members cross every aisle, from Bob Dole to Hillary Clinton, our politics are broad. Beyoncé is United Methodist and probably, that older neighbor lady who was so kind to you as a child.

We have a broad tent because we embrace social action and personal holiness. Our members are very well educated, and many have substantial disposable income. We love God and neighbor, but most importantly, we believe love is best when put into action.

The Baltimore-Washington Conference is a collection of United Methodists in 631 churches in Washington, Maryland, and the panhandle of West Virginia. We're the birthplace of Methodism in the United States. We're also a shining hope for our shared future.

Each year, clergy and lay people gather to set the vision, budget and plans of the Church in this region for the coming year. We invite you to be our partner at this annual session. There is so much we can do together.

The 241st session of the Baltimore-Washington Conference will be held May 13-15, 2025, at the Hilton Baltimore Inner Harbor, 401 West Pratt Street, Baltimore, MD.

The theme of this year's conference is "Rejoice in the Lord: Dwell in Joy"!
