What are the characteristics of the church and community?

Mt. Carmel is part of a diverse and growing community east of Frederick in the Spring Ridge area. It has a well-established pre-school well known in the area that consists of many young families. A vibrant worship experience is offered each Sunday along with many small group opportunities.

What is the vision for the next 3-5 years?

Mt. Carmel hopes to grow their children, youth, young adult and senior ministries while continuing to offer opportunities for all to grow in discipleship.

What are the expectations of the pastor?

To plan and lead both contemporary and traditional worship. To work closely with the church owned pre-school by growing relationships between families and the church. To offer training opportunities to empower the laity for ministry in the community and the local church.
