What are the characteristics of the church and community?

Pasadena UMC is located on the busy Ritchie Highway corridor, on the edges of the Pasadena peninsula. Pasadena UMC has an active and respected preschool and the church has operated a food pantry for many years. The church's music ministry is a cherished part of the congregation's identity. This has included both vocal and bell choir opportunities for all ages. The congregation prides itself on being a multi-generational congregation, with programs for all ages.

What is the vision for the next 3-5 years?

1. Craft a unified vision that both energizes as well as focuses the congregation and leadership on shared ministry
2. Grow in understanding of community and how to best be in ministry to and with the community
3. Rebuild and grow ministries in continued wake of COVID-19 and pastoral transitions

What are the expectations of the pastor?

1. Collaborative leadership approach
2. Strong management and organizational skills
3. Skill in leading into and through change
