242nd Session of the Baltimore-Washington
Conference of The United Methodist Church • 2026

Welcome!

Welcome to Baltimore City and the 242nd session of the Baltimore-Washington Conference of The United Methodist Church!

Our theme this year is grounded in Ephesians 3:16–19. As United Methodists from 558 churches across Maryland, Washington, D.C., and the panhandle of West Virginia, we connect with disciplined joy, confident that God is present among us.

This week, as we engage in holy conferencing and equip our churches for deeper discipleship and vitality, we are invited to be firmly rooted in Christ. We gather as a people who love boldly, who passionately love God and, like Jesus, embrace and include people of every age, nation, race, gender, and walk of life.

Welcome. Let us rejoice in the Lord!

BISHOP LATRELLE EASTERLING
Presiding Bishop of the Baltimore-Washington &
Peninsula-Delaware Conferences

Ephesians 3:16–19

“I pray that, according to the riches of God’ glory, God may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through the Spirit and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.”

Guidelines for Holy Conferencing What God Expects Of Us

- Every person is a child of God. Always speak respectfully. One can disagree without being disagreeable.
- As you patiently listen and observe the behavior of others, be open to the possibility that God can change the views of any or all parties in the discussion.
- Listen patiently before formulating responses.
- Strive to understand the experience out of which others have arrived at their views.
- Be careful in how you express personal offense at differing opinions. Otherwise, dialogue may be inhibited.
- Accurately reflect the views of others when speaking. This is especially important when you disagree with a position.
- Avoid using inflammatory words, derogatory names, or an excited and angry voice.
- Avoid making generalizations about individuals and groups. Make your point with specific evidence and examples.
- Make use of facilitators and mediators.
- Remember that people are defined, ultimately, by their relationship with God — not by the flaws we discover, or think we discover, in their views and actions.

Consent Calendar

In parliamentary procedure, a consent calendar gathers routine discussion points into a single agenda item. Within the BWC, the annual reports from committees and agencies that do not include recommendations are put on the consent calendar and voted upon as one item.

The ministry agencies' reports on the consent calendar can be found on the BWC website, in the sidebar of bwcumc.org/events/2026-annual-conference. Individual reports may be removed from the consent calendar by sending 10 requests (from different people at unique email addresses) to the Conference Secretary, Kevin Silberzahn, bwcsecretary@bwcumc.org before noon, on Thursday, May 28. The consent calendar will be voted on at the afternoon plenary session on May 28.

Bishop LaTrelle Easterling

Bishop LaTrelle Miller Easterling is the servant leader of the Baltimore-Washington and Peninsula-Delaware Episcopal Area. She will preside over this Annual Conference session and preach at the opening worship service.

Bishop Easterling was assigned to serve the BWC in September 2016, becoming the first woman to lead this historic conference. She became bishop of Pen-Del in September 2021, and in 2024, the two conferences became an Area. Her focus for the Area is to ensure that 100 percent of the churches become 100 percent vital.

Bishop Easterling is committed to homiletical excellence, servant leadership and transformative justice. Prior to being elected, she served as superintendent of The Boston Metro District, the most diverse and inclusive district within the New England Annual Conference, and served as Dean of the Cabinet. She has a bachelor's degree in Telecommunications and Political Science from Indiana University and a Doctor of Jurisprudence from Indiana University School of Law. She graduated summa cum laude in 2004 with a Master of Divinity from Boston University School of Theology. Prior to entering full-time ministry, Bishop Easterling served as an associate attorney in a leading law firm, a prosecuting attorney for a municipality and a human resources executive.

Bishop Easterling serves as the Chair of the Council of Bishop's Antiracism Leadership Team and is a much sought-after speaker, preacher, poet, and author. Her most recent published works is as co-author of "Building Beloved Community: The Courage to Love in the Face of Tyranny," having written the chapter on "The Enduring Poison of Racism," and as a contributing author to the newly released book "Her Faith Still Speaks: Women of the Bible Who Shape Our Faith." This collaborative Bible study brings together the voices of 14 United Methodist women who explore the lives of biblical women whose stories continue to shape our faith today.

She is married to the Rev. Marion Easterling, Jr., pastor of Locust UMC in Columbia. They have two sons, Garrett and Miles.

Bishop Gregory Vaughn Palmer

Bishop Gregory Vaughn Palmer will deliver the sermon at the Ordination and Commissioning Service and lead the daily Bible study. He is a retired bishop of the United Methodist Church and currently serves as Executive Secretary of the Council of Bishops. He is also a Senior Adviser with the Texas Methodist Foundation.

Born and raised in Philadelphia, he is the son of the late Rev. Herbert E. Palmer, a United Methodist pastor, and Charlotte Sue Hewitt Palmer, a public-school teacher.

Palmer earned a bachelor's degree from George Washington University, and a Master of Divinity from Duke University Divinity School. Numerous institutions, including Hood, Garrett-Evangelical, and United Theological Seminaries, have awarded him honorary degrees.

Ordained deacon in 1977 and elder in 1981, he served congregations in North Carolina and the East Ohio Conference, as well as superintendent of the Youngstown District.

Elected to the episcopacy in 2000, he served the Iowa and Illinois Areas. He also served as president of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry and currently serves as the Executive Secretary of the Council of Bishops.

He has served on numerous boards, and is currently a member of the Duke University Board of Trustees.

Married to his wife Cynthia for 50 years, they have two adult children, Monica and Aaron. Cynthia is a Duke University religion graduate and longtime leader in Christian education, leadership development, and community service.

Rev. Narae Kim

Rev. Narae Kim, who serves as Associate Pastor at Severna Park United Methodist Church, will preach at the Service of Remembrance on Thursday. In her role as Associate Pastor, she leads the Missions, Hospitality, and Young Adult ministries. A third-generation Methodist pastor, Narae was born and raised in South Korea, following in the footsteps of her father and grandfather in ministry.

Her call to ministry began in 2010 while serving as a South Korean young adult delegate to the Baltimore-Washington Conference. During that visit, particularly while spending time at Wesley Theological Seminary, she discerned a calling to integrate her passions for art and faith in service to the church.

Previously appointed to the Flohrville and LaVale congregations, Rev. Kim is known for her creative approach to community building. She delights in connecting everyday life with spiritual practice, creating spaces such as the “Faithful Foodies” young adult gathering and the “Declutter Anonymous” support group.

Narae lives in Maryland with her husband, Heerak Kim, and their two daughters, Ana and Ruah.

Dr. David Scott

Dr. David Scott currently serves as pastor of The Journey of Faith Church in Waldorf, Maryland, where he leads with vision, compassion, and a deep commitment to spiritual growth. With more than 30 years of ministry experience, he previously served at the historic 165-year-old Shiloh Community United Methodist Church in Newburg, Maryland, honoring its legacy while advancing innovative ministry. Scott is among this year’s class to be Commissioned as Provisional Elder.

Scott, a U.S. Army veteran, served as a (56 Alpha) Chaplain with the 101st Airborne Division during Operation Enduring Freedom, providing spiritual care and support to military leaders, joint service members, and soldiers in Afghanistan.

Scott holds a Doctor of Education from Clark Atlanta University, a Doctor of Ministry from Erskine Theological Seminary, multiple graduate degrees from Liberty University Theological Seminary, and has completed graduate studies at Wesley Theological Seminary. He also completed four units of Clinical Pastoral Education, enhancing his pastoral care and counseling skills.

Scott, an accomplished author of eight books, including “Hold Up Her Hands, The DNA of a Godly Husband, The Essential Traits of a Godly Wife,” and “15 Habits of a Happy Husband,” inspires readers to pursue truth, purpose, faith, and excellence.

Scott is a proud member of several civic, academic, and international organizations. However, above all, he is a devoted husband to Tamara Scott, affectionately known as “The Boss,” whose partnership and support fuel his mission and ministry.

Participants will leave with a deeper understanding of adaptive leadership and practical insights for leading change rooted in Christ and responsive to the moment.

Benefits and Risks of Artificial Intelligence

Are you confused about what is meant by Artificial Intelligence? Have you heard that AI might take away jobs--or save the world? Have you worried about the environmental impact of data centers? Have you wondered whether there might be any connection between the Bible, or Christian belief, and advances in technology? Over the last year, the BWC Task Force on Artificial Intelligence has worked on questions just like these. In this workshop, the Task Force will offer a presentation based on that work. The workshop will not offer a "how-to" for using AI tools. Instead, we will focus on topics that might help the church live faithfully in the era of AI.

LEADER: Mark Gorman and David Jacobson

Living Well: A Holistic Approach to a Balanced Life

Living Well is a holistic approach to living based on Christ's command to "love the Lord your God with all of your heart, and with all of your soul, and with all of your mind, and with all of your strength." (Mark 12:30-31) The Living Well approach also embraces Christ's command to "Love each other as I have loved you." (John 15:12.) In this workshop, we will explore these areas of Living Well and how they can be used to shape the discipleship of our own lives and our faith communities.

LEADER: Rev. Twanda King and Amanda McMurtrey. Rev. Twanda E. King is an ordained elder in the Baltimore-Washington Conference and the pastor of Union UMC in Upper Marlboro, Maryland. In this interactive workshop, we'll consider the meaning and importance of intergenerational worship and explore creative ideas for bringing it to life in your congregation. Together, we'll learn, imagine, and be refreshed as we discover how Christ's living water flows through every generation, renewing the whole body of Christ.

Beacon of Hope: Rooted in Christ, Reaching with Love

Our congregations and communities are longing for hope. How might we become beacons of hope — sharing God's love in ways that are authentic, relational, and transformative?

In this informative, interactive, and inspirational workshop, Ken Willard draws from his book Beacon of Hope: Your Guide to Reaching, Witnessing, and Welcoming New People to equip pastors and laity with practical tools that can be implemented immediately. Rooted in the Wesleyan tradition and inspired by the evangelistic spirit of John and Susanna Wesley, this session reclaims evangelism not as an outdated obligation, but as a living spiritual discipline grounded in love, relationship, and invitation.

Participants will:

- Reimagine evangelism for today's culture
- Gain confidence in sharing their personal faith story
- Learn practical strategies for building bridges into their surrounding community

Come rediscover how being rooted in Christ empowers us to love boldly — extending Christ's transforming grace to new people in meaningful and life-giving ways.

LEADER: Ken Willard

Disrupting Cycles: Practical tools for dealing with Stress

This interactive workshop introduces the science of the stress cycle and explains why stress doesn’t automatically disappear when church is over, the meetings are done or the workday is finished. Participants will learn how stress lives in the body, how uncompleted stress accumulates, and why burnout is often a physiological response—not a personal failure. Through accessible neuroscience, reflection, and simple, evidence-based practices, participants will gain practical tools to discharge stress, regulate emotions, and restore a sense of control and balance in both their professional and personal lives.

LEADER: Dr. Ronald Bell

Love Boldly and Risk Greatly:

Faithful responses to the current immigration realities in the U.S.

Our immigrant community in the US is under attack. The Federal administration has gone directly after them by separating families, kidnapping children, destroying the asylum system, and violating fundamental constitutional rights. Come and learn how you and your congregation can faithfully reflect today the love and justice of God by confronting harmful immigration enforcement practices and protecting the rights of immigrant communities, grounded in the movement of the Holy Spirit since the early Church.

LEADER: Rev. Cassy Núñez and Rev. Carlos Reyes Rodríguez.

Strength for Today, Bright Hope for Tomorrow:

Equipping Leaders to Love Boldly Through the Social Principles

How do we love boldly in a divided and hurting world? This workshop invites clergy and lay leaders to explore how the United Methodist Social Principles can serve as practical, faith-rooted tools for justice-making and beloved community-building. Grounded in Wesleyan theology and shaped by hope, we’ll examine how these principles guide congregations in addressing systemic injustice with clarity, courage, and compassion. Participants will leave with concrete frameworks and actionable next steps for leading ministries that embody Christ’s love boldly in their local context.

MPP Annuities	$4.863B	$3.782B	129%

Post-Retirement Medical: Based on the biennial actuarial report received in April 2025, the Post-Retirement Medical plan is reported to have an Accumulated Postretirement Benefit Obligation (APBO) funding ratio of 155.5%. The Expected Postretirement Benefit Obligation (EPBO) funding ratio is 132.4%. This report provides a good indication that the retiree medical benefits are properly funded for the long-term since the funding ratios are greater than 100%. The next actuarial report will be based on December 31, 2026 funding levels.

5. That the following resolution, as required for IRS compliance, shall be approved:

Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Clergypersons of the Baltimore-Washington Conference

The Baltimore-Washington Conference (the “Conference”) adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the “Church”), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church (“Clergypersons”);

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the Discipline), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (“GBOPHB”), during the years 2026-2027 by each active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

THAT the pension or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans, annuities or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, retired or disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity or fund for such active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson's pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations there under to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year.

Church Closures

In following God's call for their congregations, two United Methodist Churches in the Baltimore-Washington Conference have requested to be closed. We give thanks to God for their faithful ministries and the witness they have provided to their communities and the world.

Resolutions

1 Subject: Fossil Fuel Divestment and A Just Transition for Creation Care

2 Budget Implications: In our view, this action would have no financial impact on the BWC or 3 the Conference’s operating budget. Conference investments will simply be realigned within 4 existing assets and authorities as divestment and reinvestment actions are carried out, thereby
5 reducing exposure to a product that causes significant harm and can now be replaced with clean
6 energy alternatives.

7 Rationale: The Baltimore-Washington Conference will more faithfully align its financial
8 practices with the Social Principles and the Book of Discipline, join a growing body of faith 9 communities divesting from fossil fuels, and bear public witness to climate justice and care for 10 God’s creation.

11 Submitted by: Baltimore-Washington Creation Care Team

12 RESOLUTION

13 Whereas “all creation is the Lord’s, and we are responsible for how we use and abuse it,” and 14 “water, air, soil, minerals, energy resources, plants, animal life, and space are to be valued and 15 conserved because they are God’s creation and not solely because they are useful to human 16 beings,” as affirmed in the Social Principles¹;

17 Whereas the Social Principles declare that God has entrusted humanity with stewardship of 18 creation, calling the Church to protect the integrity, balance, and health of the natural world²;

19 Whereas the Social Principles further state that rampant industrialization and the corresponding 20 increase in the use of fossil fuels have led to a buildup of pollutants in the atmosphere, that 21 greenhouse gas emissions threaten to alter dramatically the earth’s climate for generations to 22 come, and that the adverse impacts of global climate change fall disproportionately on 23 individuals and nations least responsible for the emissions³;

24 Whereas for decades, The United Methodist Church has acknowledged the risks of fossil fuel
25 dependence in its Energy Policy Statement and in resolutions urging conservation, efficiency,
26 and a rapid transition to sustainable energy⁵;

27 Whereas scientific assessments indicate that any effective strategy to address climate change
28 requires keeping a significant portion of remaining fossil-fuel reserves in the ground rather than 29 burning them, and that roughly 80 percent of known fossil fuel reserves must remain unburned to 30 avoid catastrophic warming⁶;

31 Whereas the extraction, processing, and burning of coal, oil, and natural gas accelerate climate
32 disruption, intensify extreme weather events, degrade air and water quality, and cause direct 33 harm to workers and communities, especially those living on or near extraction and industrial 34 sites⁷;

35 Whereas United Methodists live and serve on the front lines of climate-related disasters—
36 hurricanes, typhoons, floods, droughts, wildfires, and sea-level rise—that exacerbate hunger,
37 disease, displacement, and poverty, undermining the Church’s ministries with the most 38 vulnerable, including children and youth⁸;

39 Whereas the Book of Discipline instructs the Church to make a conscious effort to invest in 40 institutions, companies, corporations, or funds whose practices are consistent with the goals
41 outlined in the Social Principles and to avoid investments that undermine those goals, including 42 those that contribute to environmental degradation and injustice⁹;

43 Whereas the Book of Resolutions on Socially Responsible Investing Strategies calls United 44 Methodists to use portfolio screening so that Church investments do not derive significant 45 revenue from products and practices contrary to long-standing United Methodist values¹⁰;

46 Whereas United Methodist-related entities manage substantial assets on behalf of clergy, laity,
47 agencies, and institutions, and current portfolios include significant holdings in fossil fuel 48 companies whose core business model depends on continued large-scale extraction and 49 combustion of coal, oil, and natural gas¹¹;

50 Whereas while shareholder advocacy has a role, it cannot, by itself, alter the core business
51 model of fossil fuel companies, whose economic success depends upon producing and selling the 52 very fuels that must remain unburned to prevent catastrophic climate change¹²;

53 Whereas the Social Principles call United Methodists to stand with those most harmed by 54 climate injustice and environmental racism, including low-income communities, communities of 55 color, Indigenous peoples, and small island and coastal nations⁴;

56 Whereas the Baltimore-Washington Conference Creation Care Team has articulated objectives
57 to reduce greenhouse gas emissions, promote renewable energy and efficiency, advocate for just 58 climate policy, and align Conference practices—including investment practices—with a faithful 59 response to the climate emergency¹³; and

60 Whereas we can invest in alternatives—companies and funds that support renewable energy,
61 energy efficiency, sustainable infrastructure, and community resilience—thus contributing to a
62 just transition toward a truly sustainable global economy and bearing hopeful, practical witness
63 to the Gospel¹⁴; now

64 Therefore, be it

65 Resolved, that the Baltimore-Washington Conference of The United Methodist Church affirms
66 the theological and ethical imperative, grounded in the Book of Discipline and the Social
67 Principles, to end our complicity in the fossil fuel economy and to pursue investment practices
68 that advance climate justice, creation care, and the flourishing of all God’s people¹⁵; and

2026 Proposed Resolutions

69 Be it Further Resolved, that the Baltimore-Washington Conference, through its Council on 70 Finance and Administration, Board of Trustees, Conference Board of Pensions (or equivalent), 71 and any related foundations or agencies under its authority, shall:

72 Identify all investments in their portfolios whose core business involves the ownership of 73 reserves and or production of coal, petroleum or natural gas and immediately cease any new 74 direct investment in companies or commingled funds whose core business activity involves the 75 production of coal, oil, or natural gas, with “core business activity” defined as deriving 10
76 percent or more of revenue from the extraction, production, or refining of fossil fuels¹⁶; and

77 Reinvest funds divested from fossil fuel companies into investments that support climate
78 solutions and a just transition, including but not limited to renewable energy, energy efficiency, 79 sustainable and affordable housing, community development finance, and other vehicles that 80 foster resilient, low-carbon communities¹⁷; and

81 Within three years of the close of the 2026 Annual Conference, ensure that none of the 82 Conference’s directly held or commingled assets include holdings in public equities or corporate 83 bonds of fossil fuel companies as determined by widely recognized fossil fuel industry lists and 84 screens¹⁸; and

85 Provide at least annual public progress reports to the Baltimore-Washington Conference, 86 detailing steps taken toward fossil fuel divestment, remaining exposure, and reinvestment in 87 climate solutions, with the first report due no later than one year after the close of the 2026
88 Annual Conference¹⁹; and

89 Be it Further Resoled, that the Baltimore-Washington Conference, inspired by the hope of the 90 Gospel and the call to love God, neighbor, and creation, commits itself—spiritually, financially,
91 and publicly—to walk in covenant with God’s creation, to reject profiting from practices that 92 threaten the habitability of the earth, and to bear courageous witness for a fossil-free, just, and 93 life-giving future for all God’s children²⁰.

2026 Proposed Resolutions

172 Title: Faith in Action

173 Budget Implications: No Financial Implications

174 Rationale: All of us are affected by tensions in the world in which we find ourselves, living in a
175 country that came into being alongside the denomination of which we are a part, built on an ideal 176 that, although not perfected over its 250 year history, we continue to support as a beacon of 177 democracy in a troubled world, welcoming “your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning 178 to breathe free” (“The New Colossus”, Emma Lazarus, 1883) and a nation that embraced
179 diversity as President Jimmy Carter put it, “We have become not a melting pot but a beautiful
180 mosaic. Different people, different beliefs, different yearnings, different hopes, and different 181 dreams.” We seek to live faithfully, but not ignorant of the challenges to our national ideals, and 182 to respond as we are able to the circumstances we encounter, whether as individuals, as local 183 churches, or as an Annual Conference.

184 Upon the recent death of Rev. Jesse Jackson, our Bishop, LaTrelle Easterling, a recipient of the 185 Rainbow Push Trombone Award for Faith in Action, shared that, “The world lost a dedicated 186 servant leader who tirelessly fought for justice, equality and civil rights.” This resolution is a call 187 to take up the mantel of those servant leaders we have lost, Susan B. Anthony, John Lewis,
188 Jimmy Carter, Jesse Jackson, Helen Ryde (RMN), Harvey Milk to name a few, so that we may 189 live our faith in action.

190 Submitted by:

191 Rev. Ken Hawes, Convenor MFSA, Rev. Debbie Scott, Advocacy Chair BWARM

192 RESOLUTION:

193 Whereas we find ourselves living in heightened chaos, danger, bigotry, racism and outright hate,
194 which targets especially immigrants and the LGBTQ+ community, but also any vulnerable
195 community;

196 Whereas we are watching history literally being erased and “whitewashed” and resources
197 withdrawn from cherished institutions;

198 Whereas science is being dismissed (vaccines, climate warming, environmental protections, 199 etc.);

200 Whereas our siblings, neighbors, friends and colleagues are being killed, arrested, sent to 201 detention centers and deported without due process;

202 Whereas the very ideals of these United States are being challenged;

203 Whereas the founder of the Methodist movement, Rev. John Wesley, challenged us to do no
204 harm, while silence in the face of injustice is tantamount to harm; and

2026 Proposed Resolutions

205 Whereas the new vision statement of the United Methodist Church charges us to “form disciples
206 of Jesus Christ who, empowered by the Holy Spirit, love boldly, serve joyfully, and lead
207 courageously in local communities and worldwide connections”; now

208 Therefore, be it

209 Resolved, that following our United Methodist Baptismal Vows, we each actively resist evil, 210 injustice and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves and that we model, in the 211 face of hateful words and actions, that the only thing more powerful than hate is love;

212 Be it Further Resolved, that individually, as faithful churches, communities, and as the 213 Baltimore Washington Annual Conference, we will use our voices, hearts, and resources to be 214 mindful, that resistance to hatred and injustice must begin with us; and

215 Be it Further Resolved, that each leadership group within the BWC Annual Conference and 216 each local church sets aside a portion of each meeting to reflect upon the individual phrases and 217 the overall challenge of our Baptismal Vows and denominational Vision Statement, with a desire
218 to embody those ideals within the life of the Baltimore Washington Annual Conference, its 219 boards, agencies and committees and within each local church.

224 Title: Resolution to Revamp the Pastor’s Evaluation Form

225 Budget Implications: None

226 Rationale: The current Pastor Evaluation Tool, while well-intended, contains structural and 227 conceptual limitations that hinder its effectiveness as a tool for growth, encouragement, and 228 shared accountability. The following concerns necessitate a revision of the evaluation process:
229

230 1. Overemphasis on Negativity

231 The existing evaluation framework disproportionately emphasizes areas of weakness or “needs
232 improvement,” which can unintentionally drive a deficit-focused narrative. This approach:

- 233 • Minimizes recognition of faithful service and progress;
- 234 • Overlooks pastoral labor spent addressing unplanned crises, conflict mediation, and 235 emergencies not pre-listed as goals;
- 236 • Fails to adequately celebrate positive accomplishments, resilience, and adaptive 237 leadership.
- 238 • A healthier evaluation tool should balance growth areas with intentional celebration of 239 accomplishments, both planned and unexpected.

240

241 2. Goals Are Treated as Yearly “Clean Slates”

242 The current tool assumes that each evaluation year begins anew, without sufficient regard for:

- 243 • Ongoing initiatives and multi-year projects, which may still be active, appropriate, and 244 necessary;
- 245 • Structural, financial, or systemic realities that prevent completion within a single year;
- 246 • Ministry goals that require sustained, long-term attention.

247

248

249 3. Creation of Unrealistic Expectations

250 The current evaluation process risks promoting unrealistic expectations by assuming unlimited 251 pastoral bandwidth:

- 252 • Adding 2–5 new goals annually without identifying what responsibilities, tasks, or 253 expectations will be reduced or removed to accommodate these new goals;
- 254 • Ignoring workload saturation and the cumulative weight of pastoral duties;
- 255 • Failing to acknowledge that clergy already function under intense emotional, spiritual,
256 administrative, and relational demands.

257

258 4. Lack of Giftedness Awareness

259 No pastor possesses all the gifts of ministry. The current evaluation does not adequately 260 recognize:

- 261 • Differing spiritual gifts and leadership strengths;
- 262 • The shared nature of ministry among clergy, laity, and leadership teams.
- 263 • The theological understanding that ministry effectiveness flows from collaboration, not 264 individual perfection.

2026 Proposed Resolutions

265 5. Vague and Confusing Verbiage

266 Several commonly used phrases in the evaluation tool lack clarity and consistency, leading to 267 confusion among evaluators:

- 268 • “Needs Improvement”: Implies deficiency without defining developmental pathways or 269 contextual constraints. (there is a common saying “The biggest room in the world is room
270 for improvement,” which is meant to be a positive encouragement for perpetual learning, 271 but this language encourages perpetual critique.)
- 272
- 273 • “Fully Meets Expectations”: Raises concern that growth has ended or that no further 274 attention is needed in that area.
- 275
- 276 • “Exceeds Expectations”: Lacks a clear definition of what the expectations were to begin 277 with.

278 6. Evaluation Should Drive Alignment, Not Discouragement

279 The intent of pastoral evaluation is not perfection, but alignment, clarity, encouragement, and 280 mutual accountability.

281 Submitted by: Rev. Alexis F. Brown -Elder

282 RESOLUTION

283 Whereas The clergy who serve in local churches of the Baltimore-Washington Conference are 284 committed to faithful leadership, spiritual vitality, accountability, and healthy pastoral support;

285 Whereas The evaluation of the Pastor is an important spiritual and administrative responsibility
286 of the Staff-Parish Relations Committee (SPRC), intended to encourage growth, clarify
287 expectations, and strengthen the ministry of the church;

288 Whereas The current Pastor’s Evaluation Form no longer fully reflects the evolving needs of 289 congregations, the changing context of ministry, nor the scope of pastoral responsibilities in this 290 season of the churches’ lives; and

291 Whereas Effective evaluation tools should be clear, fair, transparent, ministry-focused, and 292 aligned with the mission, vision, and strategic goals of the Baltimore-Washington Annual 293 Conference; now

294 Therefore, be it

295 Resolved, that the clergy members serving the local churches of the Baltimore-Washington
296 Annual Conference request the revamping of the Pastor’s Evaluation Form to ensure it is 297 relevant, comprehensive, and supportive of effective pastoral leadership;

298 Be It Further Resolved, that the revised evaluation form shall:

- 299 • Reflect biblical, spiritual, and leadership competencies appropriate for pastoral ministry;
- 300 • Align with the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church and SPRC
- 301 responsibilities;

2026 Proposed Resolutions

- 302 • Include both qualitative and constructive feedback, emphasizing growth and shared 303 accountability;
304 • Consider the full scope of pastoral duties, including worship leadership, pastoral care,
305 administration, community engagement, and visioning;
306 • Be sensitive to the church’s current context, resources, and strategic priorities;
307 • account for capacity, sustainability, and prioritization of the pastor’s bandwidth
308 • affirm giftedness, encourage delegation, and align expectations with realistic and faithful
309 pastoral roles;

310 Be It Further Resolved, that a task force sent out by the Board of Ordained Ministry or District 311 Committee, or designated by the Bishop incorporating both lay and clergy (serving a local 312 church) shall be charged with:

- 313 • Reviewing the current evaluation process;
314 • Developing or adopting a revised Pastor’s Evaluation Form;
315 • Seeking input as appropriate from relevant leadership bodies;
316 • Implementing the revised form beginning with the next scheduled evaluation cycle;

317 Be It Further Resolved, that this updated evaluation process shall be used as a tool for 318 encouragement, alignment, and mutual ministry effectiveness, not solely as an assessment 319 instrument; and

320 Be It Further Resolved, that upon adoption, the revised Pastor’s Evaluation Form shall be 321 reviewed periodically to ensure continued relevance and effectiveness.

322 Conclusion: For these reasons, the Clergy of the Baltimore-Washington Annual Conference
323 affirm the need to revise the Pastor Evaluation Tool so that it:

- 324 • Reflects the realities of pastoral ministry;
325 • Encourages sustainability and faithfulness over perfection;
326 • Honors both measurable goals and unseen labor;
327 • Supports a culture of trust, growth, and shared ministry.

328 Finally, this request is not intended to diminish accountability, but rather to strengthen it
329 by ensuring that evaluation practices are faithful, fair, theologically sound, and responsive
330 to the realities of pastoral ministry. A revised or newly developed evaluation tool will better 331 serve both pastors and congregations as we live into our shared call to make disciples of 332 Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

2026 Proposed Resolutions

341 Title: Establish Campus Ministry Sunday

342 Budget Implications: None

343 Rationale: This resolution seeks to establish a dedicated Sunday each year where churches come 344 together to support campus ministries, ensuring that students have the resources they need to 345 grow in their faith while navigating academic and personal challenges. By designating a Sunday
346 for this purpose, the Annual Conference can mobilize congregations to directly invest in the next 347 generation of leaders, shaping the future of the church and society.

348 Submitted by: Rev. Rachel Livingston, Rev. Jacob Cogman, and Elijah Ferebee

349 RESOLUTION

350 Whereas campus ministries play a vital role in nurturing the spiritual lives of students and young
351 adults throughout our conference at Howard University, Frostburg State University, American 352 University, University of Maryland, Morgan State University, and Bowie State University,
353 providing opportunities for worship, fellowship, and service to God and the community;

354 Whereas these ministries are often underfunded and face increasing financial challenges,
355 making it difficult to sustain their mission, build sustainable ministries, and reach students
356 seeking a connection with Christ;

357 Whereas The United Methodist Church has a long tradition of supporting higher education and 358 the development of young people in faith, fostering spiritual growth that extends beyond college
359 campuses into local communities and beyond;

360 Whereas by providing financial support for campus ministries, congregations will be able to 361 participate in and support the critical work of outreach, discipleship, and service among college 362 students in their communities and beyond; and

363 Whereas the establishment of a designated day for raising financial support for campus
364 ministries will encourage congregations to be more intentional in their support of this essential
365 ministry, promote awareness of its importance in the life of the Church, invest in the discipleship
366 of our college students, and create sustainable Campus Ministry for years to come; now

367 Therefore, be it

368 Resolved, that the Baltimore Washington Conference establishes Campus Ministry Sunday as 369 a special Sunday to appear annually on the first Sunday of May each year, when congregations 370 will be encouraged to raise an offering to support the work of campus ministries throughout the 371 conference;

372 Be it Further Resolved, that the funds raised through this offering be designated for active
373 campus ministries within the Baltimore-Washington Annual Conference;

374 Be it Further Resolved, that the conference leadership, in partnership with campus ministry 375 leaders, be tasked with providing resources to local churches to promote the observance of 376 Campus Ministry Sunday; and

2026 Proposed Resolutions

377 Be it Further Resolved, that the conference office will report annually on the funds raised
378 through Campus Ministry Sunday.

392 Whereas the nature of Connectional Ministry of the Baltimore-Washington Annual Conference
393 has changed with its partnership and shared episcopal leadership with the Peninsula-Delaware
394 Annual Conference, which has benefitted from the consistency of conference leadership; now

395 Therefore, be it

413 RESOLUTION

415 Episcopal Nominations stipulates certain time obligations;

416 Whereas the Annual Conference is constrained by the amount of time to complete its business;

417 Whereas the historic experience of episcopal nominations has suggested appropriate amounts of 418 needed time; now

419 Therefore, be it

420 Resolved, that rule ¶3013.4.e the ‘Episcopal Nominee Endorsement Process to be followed at 421 Annual Conference’ be amended as follows:

458 Rationale: This resolution seeks to update the Conference Membership rules to bring it in line

460 in the Annual Conference.

461 Submitted by: Rev. Bryant Oskvig, Chair, Rules Committee

462 RESOLUTION

463 Whereas the current Conference rules led to some confusions on categories of clergy and lay 464 membership;

465 Whereas the 2020/2024 Book of Discipline outlines specific lay persons to serve as members of

Discipleship Council Report

The work of the Discipleship Council over the past several years has been grounded in a simple but urgent question:

How do we ensure that the main thing remains the main thing— forming disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world?

The Discipleship Council exists to serve the Annual Conference by acting on its behalf between sessions, ensuring that our resources, strategies, and structures remain aligned with our shared mission, vision, and measures of vitality. While it is not a body named in the Book of Discipline, it plays a critical role in fostering alignment, coordination, and accountability as we seek to live more fully into our calling.

In a season marked by complexity, change, and deep need, the Council has focused on strengthening how congregations align their life and ministry with our shared vision: that 100% of our churches become 100% vital.

From Reporting to Reflection to Action

This work did not begin this year.

From 2020–2023, the Discipleship Ministries Report represented a first attempt to address this question. It was designed to help congregations reflect on their ministry and align more closely with our mission, vision, and measures of vitality.

However, through our collective experience, we discovered a gap between intention and practice.

What was designed to be a team-based, reflective process often became a task completed by one or two leaders. As a result, it lacked the depth of shared discernment and did not consistently shape the life and direction of the congregation as intended.

This realization prompted deeper reflection and ultimately led to the development of a new approach.

From Pilot to Practice

During the 2024–2025 ministry year, the Council developed and piloted the Church Mission and Vitality Reflection Process as a more relational, participatory, and action-oriented alternative.

The pilot invited congregations into a different way of leading—one rooted in shared reflection, honest conversation, and clear next steps.

In the 2025–2026 ministry year, the Discipleship Council focused on carefully listening to what emerged from the pilot and refining the process for broader use. Out of that work, the process has been clarified and strengthened as the Mission Alignment & Action Review.

This is not simply a reflection and goal setting process—it is a rhythm of leadership.

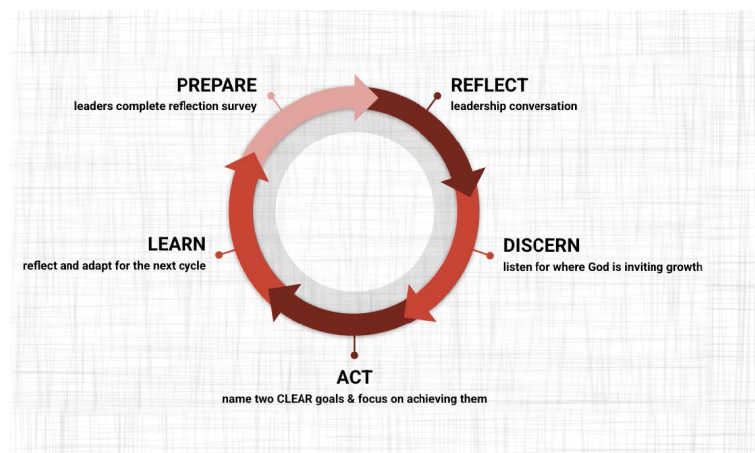

Congregations step into this rhythm in a way that is both flexible and consistent across the conference.

Congregations are invited to engage this review at a time that best fits the rhythm of the leadership team responsible for mission and ministry, with the expectation that the completed review will be shared annually.

This rhythm is both simple and intentional. Leaders begin with brief pre-work, then gather as a team to reflect on five dimensions of vitality—deepening discipleship, seeing and valuing all people, living and loving like Jesus, multiplying impact, and strengthening organizational health.

From that shared discernment, each congregation identifies two CLEAR goals for the coming year: one focused on discipleship formation and one on community impact. Over time, leaders act, learn, and re-engage the process, allowing each cycle to deepen clarity and strengthen mission.

A complete Mission Alignment & Action Review resource packet—including communication tools, review materials, and a facilitator’s guide—is available at: bwcumc.org/mission-alignment.

What We Learned from the Pilot

The 2024–2025 pilot surfaced several key insights that have shaped this year's refinements:

- Focus brings fruit. Churches made greater progress when centered on one or two meaningful goals.
- Shared leadership matters. The process expanded ownership beyond the pastor and deepened lay engagement.
- Honest reflection strengthens mission. Congregations were able to name both strengths and areas of drift.
- Vitality is both inward and outward. Forming disciples and engaging the community must remain connected.

Refinements in 2025–2026

In response to these learnings, the Council has:

- Streamlined the process to emphasize two CLEAR, actionable goals annually
- Integrated property and facility information into broader missional stewardship conversations through the Trustees report
- Explored alignment with Collaborative Hubs, including opportunities for shared asset mapping and discernment
- Clarified the intent as a leadership practice rather than a reporting requirement

In February 2026, the Discipleship Council formally affirmed this revised process for final review and broader implementation.

In March 2026, the Connectional Table provided feedback on what would make it easier for congregations to engage this process and what might create barriers.

A Shift in Culture

This work reflects a broader shift in how we lead as a conference. We are moving:

- From reporting to discernment
- From activity to alignment
- From individual leadership to shared ownership
- From maintenance to mission

At the same time, the Council has continued to engage the deeper question of what it means to form disciples in this moment—people who are rooted in Christ, clear in their convictions, and equipped to embody their faith in a complex world.

Looking Ahead

In the coming year, our focus is to:

- Support congregations in engaging the Mission Alignment & Action Review
- Align conference systems and resources around this shared work
- Continue cultivating a culture where vitality is measured by transformed lives and communities

We are deeply grateful for the leadership of Bishop Easterling and for the clergy and lay leaders across this conference who are engaging this work with courage and hope.

Together, we are learning what it means to live more fully into our calling as world-transforming disciples.

Respectfully submitted,
Pastor Kris Neale, Chair
Rev. Andre Briscoe, Vice Chair

What if worship didn't just make space for children, but was shaped with them?

The Intergenerational Worship Summit is a one-day gathering designed to help churches move beyond simply including children toward truly engaging them as participants in the life of worship and prayer. Through shared learning, practical workshops, and guided conversation, participants will explore what it means to listen to children, reflect their voices, and take meaningful next steps in their own context.

Grounded in our baptismal calling to nurture faith across generations, this day will offer both inspiration and real tools you can use right away.

I Love to Tell the Story: A Pilgrimage Towards Racial Justice in The United Methodist Church

Written by Rev. Bonnie J. McCubbin,
Director of Museums and Pilgrimage

How does a church committed to justice still carry the weight of structural racism?

Through a pilgrimage lens, Rev. Bonnie McCubbin traces this painful journey using historical archives and oral histories from those who lived through the denomination's transformation. Beginning with the haunting question, "When did you first realize you were Black?" she reveals how structural racism shaped Methodist identity and what it truly cost to pursue integration.
