Position: Part-Time Music Director

About Us:

Union Memorial United Methodist Church is a vibrant, church in west Baltimore, dedicated to enriching our community through worship and service. We are seeking a spirit-lead, passionate and skilled part-time Music Director to lead our music ministry and enhance our worship experiences.

The Role:

As our Music Director, you will serve as the primary leader of our music ministry, responsible for planning, preparing, and leading music for weekly worship services and for special events. You will work with our choir, percussionist, worship team and other musicians for the enhancement of our worship service.

Key Responsibilities:

- Lead regular rehearsals for the church choir.
- Plan and select appropriate musical repertoire, which may include anthems, congregational hymns, and special music for all worship services.
- Collaborate with the pastor and Worship Committee to coordinate music with the worship service and themes.
- Provide musical accompaniment for services and additional services as needed. (Additional Compensation)
- Oversee the care and maintenance of musical instruments and the music library.
- Explore opportunities for musical growth.

What We are Looking For:

- Demonstrated musicianship and strong choir leadership skills.
- Proven experience in church music leadership, with knowledge of choral music and worship.
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills.
- The ability to work effectively with the pastor and choir members.
- A personal faith that aligns with the mission and values of the United Methodist Church.
