Guest Speaker: Debra Musgrave Cox

Rev. Debra Cox
Pastor

Debra knew from early childhood that she would be active and spend her life working in the church. Originally she planned on working as a church musician, and, in fact, started her college education at Columbia College, SC, as a music major. Gradually she realized that her true calling was to be a minister. After receiving her music degree from Columbia, she attended and graduated from Princeton Theological Seminary. Debra was ordained and became our pastor in the fall of 2008. In the past thirteen years she has become a wife and mother, but is still a pastor who is passionate about loving God, exploring scripture, and equipping the local church in knowing and serving God. She loves teaching, music, mission work, and talking one-on-one with others.
