

Rahab

- What is something that stuck out to you from last Sunday's teaching?
- Everyone Answer: Share about a time that God did something through you that you did not feel like you were the right person to do or not qualified for.
 - Why did you feel like you were not the right person for the job?
 - How do you know that it was the Spirit at work through you?
 - What was the result?
 - How did your faith grow/change because of it?
- Read Joshua 2:1-7
 - What are some things that stand out to you in these verses?
 - What to you is significant about the fact that the prostitute is named in scripture while the King and even the spies go unnamed?
 - Why do you think God would lead these spies to a prostitute for safety and not someone who is more dignified?
 - What could be the possible reasons that this prostitute's place was the best place for the spies to hide?
 - Why do you think Rahab was so willing to protect these spies against her own country/government?
- Read Joshua 2:8-14
 - How do you think Rahab comes to the understanding of God's intentions with her people are?
 - What are the major points of Rahab's confession of Yahweh?
 - What are some other bible stories you know of where God uses the most unlikely people to accomplish His good purposes?
- How are you personally challenged when hearing stories like these?
- Pray
