

Queen Esther

- What is something that stuck out to you from last Sunday's teaching?
- Everyone Answer: Who is a leader that you really look up to?
 - What has that leader accomplished through their leadership? (Think impact on others)
 - List the qualities and characteristics that make that leader great to you.
 - In what ways do you aspire to be like that leader?
- Open to the book of Esther and together summarize the whole story.
 - What are some things that stand out to you in this story?
 - Compare and contrast your list of leadership characteristics with what you know about King Xerxes.
 - In what ways is he a good leader?
 - In what ways is he a bad leader?
 - Compare and contrast your list of leadership characteristics with what you know about Mordecai.
 - In what ways is he a good leader?
 - In what ways is he a bad leader?
 - Compare and contrast your list of leadership characteristics with what you know about Queen Esther.
 - In what ways is she a good leader?
 - In what ways is she a bad leader?
- Do you think Esther would have considered herself a leader? Why or why not?
 - Ultimately it is God at work in Esther that produces great leadership out of what seems to be a meek character in the story.
 - Take time to boast about how God has produced leadership in you throughout your life in spite of your personal weaknesses.
 - Why do you think it is important to recognize the work of God that produces through you?
 - Pray together.
