ADVENTURE CLUB REGISTRATION

Our Wednesday evening children's ministry is scheduled to begin August 7. This year's teaching will center on the doctrine of the Trinity. Today is the last day to register your children. Please use the church app to do so, and list their age as of September 1st, 2024.

DINNER FOR 8

We are gearing up for another round of Dinner for 8. Sign up with the church app through the end of July. This round of dinners will take place August through October. This is an opportunity for members to informally gather for fellowship with one another. The primary goals are to expand and enrich your relationships with more people throughout the church. Groups will be organized and notified by early August. Groups will then coordinate their own dinner between August 1 and October 31. If you have any questions, please email Brent Wells at brent.m.wells@gmail.com.

SUMMER EVANGELISM SERIES

Join us on Wednesday nights for our special summer evangelism series. The pastoral staff is teaching through Grace Evangelism—a course that will train you to clearly and understandably proclaim the gospel message—and then will address apologetics and witnessing to false religions and cults. Our prayerful goal is to remind, equip, and encourage every Christian to boldly proclaim Christ.

SUNDAY PRAYER MINISTRY

Our Sunday Prayer Ministry meets from 8:30-8:50 am in the Seminary Classroom. This ministry is a tangible reminder and encouragement of our complete dependence on the Lord for all ministry at TCBC. All are encouraged to come and pray for the Lord's help and blessing for various ministries at TCBC. If you are interested in participating regularly in this ministry, please contact Dayne Girard.

PARKING INFORMATION

With the lot opening, we are asking that people no longer park on Ebert Street. It can cause issues with traffic visibility and should be unnecessary with the new lot's capacity.

- For those who have parked at the townhouses, thank you for service - doing so should now no longer be necessary.
- The middle grassy lot and barn parking remain open.
- As a reminder, please serve one another by parking at a spot further from the church if you arrive early and are able to walk.

GENERATIONS OF GRACE

Paul testifies to the gospel in Rome • Acts 28:11–31

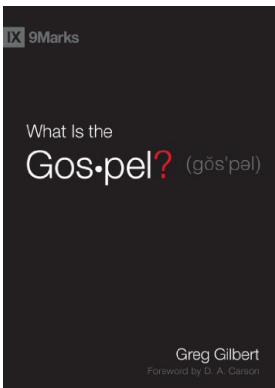

Principle: God sovereignly calls those He chooses through the power of the gospel.

Ask Your Child: How did Paul defend himself to the Jews in Rome?

Apply: By praying that God will give a missionary from your church boldness and the freedom to preach unhindered (Acts 28:31).

This Week: As a family, read Acts 28:11–31.

Next Week: Review

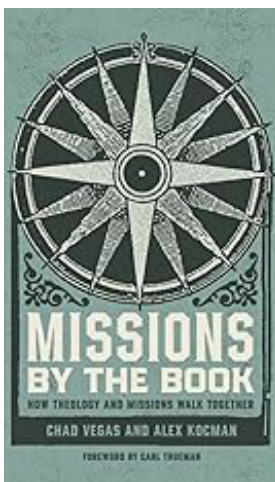

What Is the Gospel?

by Greg Gilbert

What is the gospel? It seems like a simple question, yet it has been known to incite some heated responses, even in the church. How are we to formulate a clear, biblical understanding of the gospel? Tradition, reason, and experience all leave us ultimately disappointed. If we want answers, we must turn to the Word of God.

Greg Gilbert does so in What Is the Gospel? Beginning with Paul's systematic presentation of the gospel in Romans and moving through the sermons in Acts, Gilbert argues that the central structure of the gospel consists of four main subjects: God, man, Christ, and a response. The book carefully examines each and then explores the effects the gospel can have in individuals, churches, and the world. Both Christian and non-Christian readers will gain a clearer understanding of the gospel in this valuable resource.

Missions by the Book

by Chad Vegas and Alex Kocman

Across the church, there is a rift between theology and missions. Bad theology produces bad missions, and bad missions fuels bad theology.

We wrongly think that we must choose between making a global impact and thinking deeply about the things of God. But the relationship between theology and missions is symbiotic—one cannot exist without the other. They walk hand-in-hand.
