THOUGHTS TO PONDER

STEPHEN CHARNOCK – It is a sad thing to be Christians at a supper, heathens in our shops, and devils in our closets.

MATTHEW HENRY – It is common for those that are farthest from God, to boast themselves most of their being near to the Church.

CHARLES SPURGEON – Beware of no man more than of yourself; we carry our worst enemies within us.

JONATHAN EDWARDS – There are two sorts of hypocrites: ones that are deceived with their outward morality and external religion; and the others are those that are deceived with false discoveries and elevation; which often cry down works, and men's own righteousness.

JOHN BUNYAN – The house of the formalist is as empty of religion as the white of an egg is of savor.

JOHN CALVIN – The human heart has so many crannies where vanity hides, so many holes where falsehood lurks, is so decked out with deceiving hypocrisy, that it often dupes itself.

SUNDAY PRAYER MINISTRY

Our Sunday Prayer Ministry meets from 8:30-8:50 am in Room C114 (the new Seminary classroom). This ministry is a tangible reminder and encouragement of our complete dependence on the Lord for all ministry at TCBC. All are encouraged to come and pray for the Lord's help and blessing for various ministries at TCBC. If you are interested in participating regularly in this ministry, please contact Dayne Girard.

GENERATIONS OF GRACE

God parts the Red Sea • Exodus 14:1–15:21

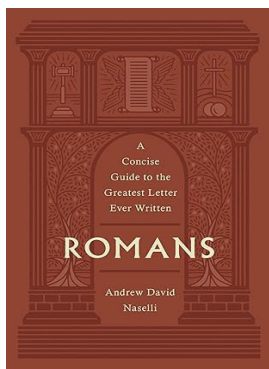

Principle: God wants us to trust and praise Him for His power.

Ask Your Child: How did the Israelites escape the Egyptian army?

Apply: By praising God for His mighty deeds.

This Week: As a family, read Exodus 14–15.

Next Week: Exodus 15:22–17:7

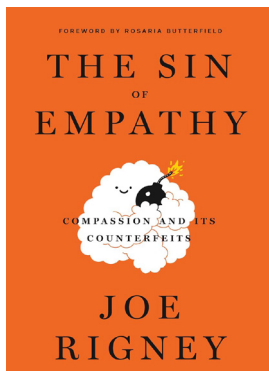

Romans

by Andrew David Naselli

Martin Luther called the book of Romans the “chief part of the New Testament” and “the purest gospel.” The apostle Paul’s letter to the Romans has had arguably the largest influence on believers throughout church history. Paul systematically and formally articulates the gospel of Jesus Christ--the righteousness God gives to sinful humans through faith.

Scholar and author Andrew David Naselli traces Paul’s argument for the gospel throughout this concise and accessible guide to the book of Romans. Designed to be read alongside the epistle itself, it provides accessible, standalone commentary unpacking the text verse by verse. This volume dives into the key themes of righteousness, peace, and God’s promises, accompanied by reflection questions on interpretation and application--perfect for individual or group study.

The Sin of Empathy: Compassion and Its Counterparts

by Joe Rigney

The so-called virtue of empathy is the greatest rhetorical tool of manipulation in the 21st century.

Because love is a real virtue, empathy’s power is in posing as selfless care for victims.

A sad polar bear pines as David Attenborough informs you that the family suburban is melting the ice caps.

“Jesus was an asylum seeker!” the sign reads at an Open Borders Rally.

A forlorn Bruno wishes he too could change in the women’s locker room, a place he’s always known he belonged.

“My mom said if we don’t go she’ll be just devastated.”

When you reject the sin of empathy, you reject the manipulation of the media, the manipulation of family and friends, and most importantly, the manipulation of your own heart.
