He and his wife, Julie, have been married for twenty-two years and have four children.

SUNDAY PRAYER MINISTRY

Our Sunday Prayer Ministry meets from 8:30-8:50 am in Room C114 (the new Seminary classroom). This ministry is a tangible reminder and encouragement of our complete dependence on the Lord for all ministry at TCBC. All are encouraged to come and pray for the Lord's help and blessing for various ministries at TCBC. If you are interested in participating regularly in this ministry, please contact Dayne Girard.

GENERATIONS OF GRACE

Jesus enters Jerusalem as King • Matthew 21:1–23:39

Principle: Jesus is the promised Messiah.

Ask Your Child: How did the crowds treat Jesus as the promised King?

Apply: By obeying Jesus as King.

This Week: As a family, read Matthew 21:1–23:39.

Next Week: Matthew 26:1–16, 47–56; 27:3–10

Romans

by Andrew David Naselli

Martin Luther called the book of Romans the “chief part of the New Testament” and “the purest gospel.” The apostle Paul’s letter to the Romans has had arguably the largest influence on believers throughout church history. Paul systematically and formally articulates the gospel of Jesus Christ--the righteousness God gives to sinful humans through faith.

Scholar and author Andrew David Naselli traces Paul’s argument for the gospel throughout this concise and accessible guide to the book of Romans. Designed to be read alongside the epistle itself, it provides accessible, standalone commentary unpacking the text verse by verse. This volume dives into the key themes of righteousness, peace, and God’s promises, accompanied by reflection questions on interpretation and application--perfect for individual or group study.

The Sin of Empathy: Compassion and Its Counterparts

by Joe Rigney

The so-called virtue of empathy is the greatest rhetorical tool of manipulation in the 21st century.

Because love is a real virtue, empathy’s power is in posing as selfless care for victims.

A sad polar bear paces as David Attenborough informs you that the family suburban is melting the ice caps.

“Jesus was an asylum seeker!” the sign reads at an Open Borders Rally.

A forlorn Bruno wishes he too could change in the women’s locker room, a place he’s always known he belonged.

“My mom said if we don’t go she’ll be just devastated.”

When you reject the sin of empathy, you reject the manipulation of the media, the manipulation of family and friends, and most importantly, the manipulation of your own heart.
