THOUGHTS TO PONDER

J. GRESHAM MACHEN – The Great weapon with which the disciples of Jesus set out to conquer the world was not a mere comprehension of eternal principles; It was not an historical message, and account of something that had recently happened, it was the message, ‘He has risen.’

B.B. WARFIELD – The resurrection is the Cardinal doctrine of our system: on it all other doctrines hang.

ALEXANDER MACLAREN - The risen life of Jesus is the nourishment and strengthening and blessing and life of a Christian. Our daily experience ought to be that there comes, wavelet by wavelet, that silent, gentle, and yet omnipotent influx into our empty hearts, this very life of Christ Himself.

CHURCH PICNIC

We are planning our annual Memorial Day Picnic for Sunday, May 24th on the TCBC campus. You are welcome to show up any time that afternoon to set up pop-up tents, chairs, and games. Food will be served around 5pm. The church will provide the main dish and drinks. Plan to bring a side or dessert to share.

SPECIAL MUSIC SERVICE

Our church musicians will present a special music night on Sunday, June 7 at 6pm entitled “Bound for the Promised Land.” Music and Scripture readings will focus on the Christian’s journey through this earth that ultimately ends in eternity with God.

GENERATIONS OF GRACE

The Son of Man is crucified • Luke 22:47–53; 23:26–49

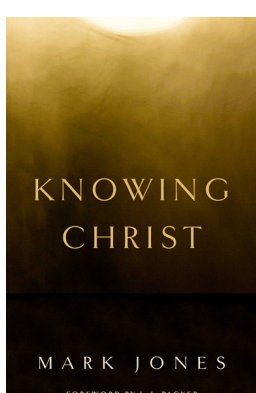

Principle: Jesus died as a substitute for sinners.

Ask Your Child: Why was it necessary for Jesus to die?

Apply: By trusting that Jesus is the only way to heaven.

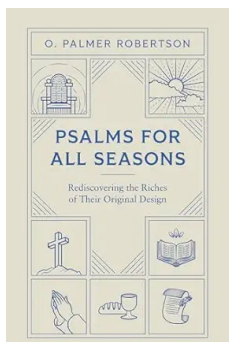

This Week: As a family, read Luke 22:47–53; 23:26–49.

Next Week: Luke 23:50–24:53

Knowing Christ by Mark Jones

The Puritans loved the Bible, and dug into it in depth. Also, they loved the Lord Jesus, who is of course the Bible's focal figure; they circled round him, centred on him, studied minutely all that Scripture had to say about him, and constantly, conscientiously, exalted him in their preaching, praises, and prayers. Mark Jones, an established expert on many aspects of Puritan thought, also loves the Bible and its Christ, and the Puritans as expositors of both; and out of this triune love he has written a memorable unpacking of the truth about the Saviour according to the classic Reformed tradition, and the Puritans supremely. Knowing Christ is a book calculated to enrich our twenty-first-century souls, and one that it is an honour to introduce.

Psalms for All Seasons by O. Palmer Robertson

O. Palmer Robertson here examines twenty-five psalms, reflecting the variety of messages and structures found across the entire Book of Psalms. The author argues that originally the Psalms were intended to be used with interactive congregational responses and his translations reflect this understanding.

This book aims to help congregations rediscover the riches of the Psalms in their fullness, that the full-orbed testimony of the Psalter, as it touches every experience of weal and woe in the life of God's people, may again find a voice in the current worship of the church.
