Seeking God's Guidance and Will

"Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all the day long"
(Psalm 25:5).

We desire to follow God's plans for us. We desire to see His will be done among us, but how do we go about discerning God's will? How do we know where God is leading?

Many desire that the process would be as easy as hearing the voice of the Lord or receiving a clear sign/message from God. We would even settle for God sending us an email everyone once in a while letting us know that we are on the right track. The problem is that seeking God's will is not magical, mysterious, or even miraculous. God has given us both His Word and His wisdom. He has given us our physical/creational gifts of "body and soul, eyes, ears, and all [our] members, [our] reason and all [our] senses" (Small Catechism, The Creed, 1st Article) and He has given us our spiritual gifts in Christ Jesus as "the Holy Spirit has called [us] by the Gospel, enlightened [us] with His gifts, and kept [us] in the true faith" (Small Catechism, The Creed, 3rd Article). As the Apostle Paul reminded the Christians in Corinth, "...in every way you were enriched in [Jesus] in all speech and all knowledge ... so that you are not lacking in any gift, as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Corinthians 1:5, 7).

God has plans for us individually and collectively. God has gifted us individually and collectively. God has called us to be about following His will as we joyously respond to the goodness and grace that is ours in Christ Jesus our Lord. And for that very reason, the people of Calvary continue to seek God's will for us. We do it looking to His Holy Scriptures that provide us both His truth and His grace for our daily lives and also by using our 1st article gifts of human wisdom, leadership, collaboration, and reflection, as well as His 3rd article gifts of prayer, reflection, and the mutual conversation and consolation of Christian brothers and sisters.

There are two exciting opportunities taking place at Calvary, as we seek God's will among us. First, a call committee has been formed to seek God's will in filling our role of Associate Pastor of Pastoral Care and Adult Education. Members include Phil Hendershott (chair), Ann Arnold, Gene Jend, Rhonda Hansen, Ben Langhammer, Kirsten Springer, and Wendy Wilson. Ex Officio members are Pastor Kurt Ebert, Pastor Sam Troemel, Bill Laut (Exec. Dir.), and Eric Eisberg (Spiritual Care Dir.). We have scheduled our first meeting with our Indiana district representatives, who will provide guidance to our Call Committee as it accomplishes its work. We ask for your prayers for the work of the Call Committee, that the Holy Spirit may guide this process. Please continue to stay informed and connected to this process as we seek God's will for our congregation.

Second, our Strategic Planning Process that started at the end of 2022 has reached a new stage in the process. After a continued process of reflection, discussion, and engagement of many leaders and volunteers among our congregation, we have reached 3 clearly established goals that we will be working toward during this ministry year. They are meant to help unite us in a common direction. They will allow us to improve the ministry here at Calvary, while also situating us to reach out to our neighborhood and community. More information about the specific goals and the process that we went through to arrive at them can be found at clcs.org/strategicplanning. Again, we ask for your prayers, your support, and your engagement. If you would like to know how you can get involved in making these goals a reality, please talk to any of our staff or volunteer leadership. You can find our names and faces at clcs.org/staff/ or on the pictures in the narthex outside the Conference Room.

We pray for God's wisdom and guidance as we continue to discern His will and follow His word. May His kingdom come into our hearts and world, and may His will be done in our lives, our community, and our world.

God's Peace, Pastor Kurt Ebert

Steve Rensner

What is your role at Calvary?

I serve as the Principal of the Day School.

What is your favorite thing about serving at Calvary?

My favorite thing is the partnership experienced within the congregation as it extends into the life of our Calvary community. This includes the support and care extended to our faculty, staff, parents, and students. I thank God for the privilege each day to gather with our pastors, teachers, and staff as we proclaim His Name to our students and to one another.

Who has been the biggest influence on your faith? Why?

It is generational from my paternal grandmother to my father and mother. Their daily witness and example of faith in action made faith and each day connected. I am blessed to be yoked with Cheryl as through the power of the Holy Spirit this has been passed to the next generations of our children and grandchildren.

Favorite Book/Verse of the Bible?

Joshua 1:9

Favorite Dessert?

Jello-O Cake. This is my go-to for every birthday.

What is one thing that the people of Calvary can keep in their prayers for your area of ministry?

Continue to pray for God's leading and directing as each day hundreds of children enter these doors that they and all others may hear the Word of God and grow in faith, service, and love. Pray for our faculty and staff that God grants to all health, strength, and peace to complete the tasks set before them. Pray that God would place His hand of safety and protection around Calvary and all schools.

Executive Director

From Your Executive Director

As I write this November's article, it's nearing the middle of October, and we've already had a taste of fall with some brisk mornings. Those who know me well also know I don't do well with Autumn: I am a Spring and Summer person. While some may rave about the fall colors and the crisp weather, this is not my season. I think it goes back to my grandparents' cottage on Lake Lemon, where I spent my summers growing up; the falling leaves and cool weather were a reminder that summer was over. No more boating, swimming, fishing, or finding new expeditions.

The weather has become an obsession with some Americans: we have The Weather Channel, Accuweather, Weather Underground, and many other sources for 24/7 coverage and discussion about the weather. We are alerted to unfavorable weather days in advance and given plenty of time to take precautions if needed. Those of us old enough to remember the Palm Sunday tornados in 1965 did not have that luxury; I remember leaving my cousin's confirmation at Calvary that Sunday only to be rushed home and hunker down in the basement the remainder of the day.

Humorist (and curmudgeon) Mark Twain, in his book The Gilded Age, quipped "Everybody talks about the weather but nobody does anything about it." I work in an office where nobody can agree on what the office temperature can be – I cannot imagine the disagreements over what the weather should be.

We can't change the weather, but we can change how we at Calvary share Christ's Gospel message with our members and our community, as we Engage People in Christ.

We need to find better ways to Learn and grow as Christians, and to also understand our Lutheran heritage. Do you have a copy of the Book of Concord in your home, to know what we as Lutheran Christians hold to be our common confession and beliefs?

We must seek to better Connect with our members and community. We are blessed with a robust online presence and the ability to share our service with those unable to attend. Did you know that according to a recent study, about 30% of Americans now work on the weekends, meaning they may be unable to attend worship services in person? We need to be able to reach those people in a consistent manner.

We should always seek to improve how we Care for others who are in need or may be less fortunate: the single mother. The unemployed. Those with health issues. Those who have allowed pride and human arrogance to stand between them and Christ. Are we helping these, as we are told to do by Christ in Matthew 22:39 and in John 13:34?

All these things we do, or ought to do, are done in love, Serving Christ. Might they require changes on our part? Are we willing to make those changes to better serve as an example of His love for us and others? Or will we just say "Meh, the status quo is okay. Let's not do anything differently"?

We have a mission and vision as members of Christ's church at Calvary Lutheran. I pray that during this month, a month connected to Thanksgiving, we remember and are thankful for the many blessings He has given us, and we in turn take these to others.

In His and your service,

Bill Laut

Interest

I always found financial interest to be fascinating. As a child, I was taught the advantages and disadvantages of interest placed financial accounts. Of course, the advantage is that when funds are invested, the investor receives interest on their initial deposit. The obvious disadvantage is that when money is borrowed a larger percentage of interest is assessed. We never get more interest depositing than when accessed interest borrowing. Today's interest rates make purchasing items more costly if requiring borrowing funds.

Does this concept of interest apply to our relationships with one another and with God? We do indeed invest in one another. At Calvary Lutheran this occurs each hour of each day. Teaching and instruction are invested into the hearts and minds of the students. God invests His love in us through His Word and the power of the Holy Spirit. We would be bankrupt without this saving and redeeming love. God's interest is eternal. No term limits. God calls us to share His love without limits as well. When we invest in and with one another all benefit. We all gain a return in building this community and partnership. We join singing a little louder. Connecting Learning Caring Serving

Opening Doors

God has blessed families of Indiana with the choice of sending their children to the school that they feel best meets their needs. The LUTHERAN SGO of Indiana has changed the boundaries of the local school and greatly broadened them. You can open even more doors allowing students to enter the hallways of Calvary Lutheran Church and School. This opportunity will provide scholarship grants to students and their families. Contributions made by you for this purpose will be used to offer a Christian education so that children may not only receive a quality education, but to hear God's Word.

How do I help open these doors? Contribution forms for Lutheran SGO are available online at www.LutheranSGO.org. The state of Indiana will give you a tax credit of 50% of your donation. Example: If you give a gift of $1000.00 you will receive an Indiana state tax credit of $500.00. This is a unique opportunity. Funding for these scholarship grants for current students enrolled at Calvary is $45,500.00. We have currently gathered approximately $17,000.00. Those desiring to contribute to this fund may do so through December 31 to receive the tax credit for this 2023 calendar year. Any additional funds gathered will remain in our account with the Lutheran SGO of Indiana to be used during the 2024-25 school year. We ask the Lord to provide for the needs of others through the gifts of our hands.

National Lutheran Schools Accreditation

The faculty, staff, and parents of Calvary Lutheran School have been engaged in a year-long self-study process. This process culminates in a 3-day site visit by 6 Lutheran educators. This visit is scheduled for November 8-10. The visiting team observes our daily activities and programs. Standards are checked and ratified. Our self-study report presents evidence to support our execution of those standards. We thank all of them for their work and care throughout this process. We thank the six Lutheran educators for their time and willingness to serve on this visiting team. The result of the self-study process is to create a 5-year plan setting goals and objectives. We ask the Lord to guide us according to His Good Will.

"Our True Hope" – Sermon Text: Matthew 5:1-12 – Rev. Jeremy Swem

In the midst of hardships, struggles, and persecution it is easy to lose hope and falsely believe that God has abandoned us. He has not. John in his Revelation provides us the sure and certain hope that our Savior brings us through all these things finally giving to us His victory.

"Last Day Hope" – Sermon Text: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 – Rev. Dr. Walter Maier III

We learn from the Apostle Paul about Last Day realities, which mean for us present-day hope. These truths about that Day move us to encourage one another now as brothers and sisters in Christ.

Psalm 146; Zephaniah 1:7-16; Matthew 25:14-30

"Good and Faithful Servants" – Sermon Text: Matthew 25:14-30 – Rev. Thomas Eggold

In Christ, God's wrath has been satisfied and we have been liberated from sin and freed to serve; freed to use the talents God has given us; freed to be the people Christ died to create. And in Christ, the Master call us "good and faithful servants" as we carry out His work in the world.

November 26, 2023 – Twenty-sixth Sunday After Pentecost

Psalm 95:1-7a; Ezekiel 34:11-16, 20-24; Matthew 25:31-46

"Sheep and Goats" – Sermon Text: Matthew 25:32 – Rev. Shayne Jonker

The sheep go to the right, the goats to the left, but take note of the terms of separation. They are sorted on the basis of what they are, not what they do. And this is precisely what the apostle Paul means when he says that we are justified by God's grace through faith in Christ apart from works of the law. Final Judgment is made not on the basis of what you did, but on the basis of what you are.
