From the Pastors

The Passing of Time

"For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven..." (Ecclesiastes 3:1).

"...the appointed time has grown very short. ...

For the present form of this world is passing away" (1 Corinthians 7:29, 31).

When we are young, we do not think of the precious commodity of time. We think that we have stores and stores of it. We believe that an endless supply simply awaits.

Why do we think this? Because too often life seems to move so "slowly" when we are young. There is always something that we anxiously await. It seems like our next birthday or our next holiday or our next school break will never get here. It seems like we are always impatiently waiting for the day that we will finally be old enough to have our own bedroom or tall enough for the big kid bike or mature enough for the next thing our parents don't think we are ready for yet. When we are young, we can find ourselves too frequently wishing away the time that we have because of something that we don't yet have.

And yet as we age, we find ourselves having quite the opposite experience. We long for the days that have passed. We yearn for days that were simpler, happier, or better. We wish for the time when our health was better, our kids were younger, or our days were fuller.

Time can be a funny thing. We can too often try to live in the future or dwell in the past, causing us to fail to cherish the present. After all, the "present" is the very "gift" that God continues to give. Ecclesiastes 3 reminds us that there are certain seasons through which we must pass. It reminds us in its own sing-song way that life in this world is never "stagnant." There are changes that must be navigated, transitions that must be embraced, blessings that must be received, and losses that must be mourned. Though we may long for another time and space, it is only within that specific season that we are presently placed. And it is within that particular season that we must ask, "In light of God's presence and promises to me in this present time, how shall I live?"

We do not want to waste what wisdom God wants to impart. We do not want to squander the gifts that have been given. We especially do not want to miss the window to see God's will at work within our lives. A preacher by the name of Charles Spurgeon once reflected upon our topic in this way, "Time is short. Eternity is long. It is only reasonable that this short life be lived in the light of eternity." So, where is God inviting you to life in the light of eternity? Where is God inviting you to see His blessings, to hear His calling, and to touch His presence in the blessings of the "PRESENT"?

May our God give you the assurance that "the steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; His mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is [His] faithfulness. ... The Lord is good to those who wait for him, to the soul who seeks him. It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the Lord" (Lamentations 3:22-26). Let us therefore wait for the Lord in the present and receive what He shall bless us with from His gracious hand. And as we wait, we praise, we thank, we confess, we pray, for He is the one who is with us in every moment. Although you may not feel it, although you may not think it, and although at times you may not believe it, there is never a moment that He is not right there beside you. There is never a moment that you are alone.

"...And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age" (Matthew 28:20b).

God's Peace, Pastor Kurt Ebert

"Take care of your body as if you were going to live forever; and take care of your soul as if you were going to die tomorrow." St. Augustine

Gary Schultz

What is your role at Calvary?

Director of Calvary Chorale & Handbells, Organist

What is your favorite thing about serving at Calvary?

I appreciate the opportunity to lead the music through the choirs and organ in the praises of God's gathered guests to receive His gifts of Word and Sacrament in Divine Service and to confess the faith of the church.

Who has been the biggest influence on your faith? Why?

Though many have had great influence, Rev. Richard Resch, Kantor at my home church, St. Paul's, Ft. Wayne and at Concordia Theological Seminary, was a role model in understanding the interpretation and application of the Scriptures in worship, music, and preaching, and in the practical application of planning and leading hymns, directing choirs, and celebrating the liturgical year.

Favorite Book/Verse of the Bible?

My favorite book is Psalms, though it is hard to pick one! "Sing unto the Lord, bless his name; show forth his salvation from day to day" (Psalm 96:2). Martin Luther wrote, "The Psalter ought to be a precious and beloved book, if for no other reason than this: it promises Christ's death and resurrection so clearly—and pictures His kingdom and the condition and nature of all Christendom—that it might well be called a little Bible."

Favorite Dessert?

Apple pie

What is one thing that the people of Calvary can keep in their prayers for your area of ministry?

Pray that our Lord would use the musical efforts and offerings of myself, the other musicians, and the singing of the congregation to confess the doctrine of the Church and the life and work of Christ for our salvation.

Executive Director

From Your Executive Director

When we talk about special days in February, the first response from most people will be "Valentine's Day" on February 14th, followed by President's Day, a floating holiday celebrated this year on the 19th. Those of us over 50 probably remember when we celebrated Lincoln's Birthday (the 12th) and Washington's Birthday (the 22nd, N.S.) as separate events. The Uniform Monday Holiday Act passed by Congress in 1968 officially changed our celebratory date, which previously had always been on Washington's Birthday.

Honoring both Washington and Lincoln has a long history in our country. Many of us learned the line "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen" written as a eulogy for Washington by General Henry "Light Horse Harry" Lee. And we likely recall reading what Secretary of State Edwin Stanton said after Lincoln breathed his last: "Now he belongs to the ages."

There are two other very important dates we Lutherans commemorate in February: February 16th, the birth of Philip Melancthon, and February 18th, the death of Martin Luther. Both of these men played nearly the same role as Washington and Lincoln: like Washington, Luther was the father of the Reformation, and like Lincoln, Melancthon's writings helped hold the early Lutheran church together.

We are not the Rome church, which has over 10,000 recognized saints, many forgotten by time. But we do give certain people like Luther and Melancthon, special recognition and commemoration in the church. In Article XXI of the Augsburg Confession, largely written by Melancthon, we read: "(We) teach that the memory of saints may be set before us, that we may follow their faith and good works, according to our calling." In other words, we honor the saints, not as intercessors to God, but as a source of inspiration for our own life and faith.

At Calvary, we also give honor to saints, those who came before us and served as examples of Christian faith to us. Perhaps it was a certain pastor or adult leader. Maybe a grandparent, or a close family friend. It might even be someone we only know from a distance, whose life has shown outward evidence of their internal faith. We are blessed, as a congregation, to come from a long line of saints.

Yet how do we honor and follow their faith? How do we provide an example to others, both inside and outside our church? How do we connect with others to share the Gospel? How do we demonstrate our care and our love for others? And how do we grow and learn in the Word? Do we accomplish these things by sitting back and letting others do the work, or do we actively involve ourselves in the work of the church, helping others to grow in their faith? Or even understand who Jesus is, and why we work to spread His Gospel?

And while we commemorate and remember both Luther and Melancthon, we need to remember these men and others were challenging the status quo of the church, seeking to bring about change by reforming what they saw to be inerrancies and false teaching. The church they left us was very different than the one 100 years earlier, and that reformation continues to this day as we look at the best way we can deliver Christ to the community and congregation, remaining true to our Lutheran roots, but also realizing that the world is much different than it was 10, 20, or 50 years ago. What worked then may not be the best today, and we owe it to the memory of those who came before us to constantly revive how – not why – we do what we do.

So, we always honor those who came before us, who bravely faced nay-sayers (after all, what sane congregation would form in a suburban Indianapolis community in the middle of a Depression?) and gave us a legacy we can carry to others, to Engage People In Christ at Calvary.

In His and your service,

Bill Laut

What are You Looking Forward to this Year?

2024 is here for one month already. Any special dates or activities planned for the year? Any weddings, births, trips, anniversaries, retirement, a new job, or a move planned? Each year holds its own significance. Turning a specific noteworthy age could add to your significance. No matter our plans God goes before us. As we place our trust in Him we are confident that He is leading and directing us. This is not to be compartmentalized but realized in every and all circumstances.

The Wisemen from the East did not plan on following a star that year. It was not on their "To Do List." When the star appeared all their plans changed. We are not told in the Bible how long the trip took nor its magnitude, but everything else in their lives was placed on hold. God led them to seek the Christ-Child. When they found Him they fell down and worshipped Him giving Him precious gifts. Is seeking the Christ-Child part of your 2024 plans as well? God calls us to first seek Him. We do this through the power of the Holy Spirit as we gather for worship, pray, and study His Word. We share that Good News with others as we sing a little louder. May the Lord bless your 2024 and all future years with His grace and love as you first seek Him.

Early Registration / Open Enrollment for 2024-25

New Applications and Re-enrollment continue to be accepted through January 31 for the 2024-25 school year for all Preschool sessions as well as Kindergarten – 8th Grades for Calvary members, returning students and their siblings. New enrollments from the community begin on February 1. As Calvary's school has continued to grow, space availability in the classrooms has become limited. Be sure to re-enroll your children early to ensure they maintain their placement! Early Registration enables Calvary to plan and prepare staffing and facility needs for the upcoming school year. Enrollment after January 31 for returning students will be assessed a late fee of $100 per student. If you know someone looking for a school home for their family, you can refer them to Mr. Jason Scheidt, Calvary's Director of Admissions at 317-783-2305 or online at www.choosecalvary.com. We are excited to plan for another year of Christian Education for our students!

President's Day observed

School will not be in session on Friday-Monday, February 16th-19th in observance of Presidents' Day. God indeed grants to people the needed abilities to complete the tasks and service that they have been elected to do and accomplish. We thank God for the gifts that He has and continues to give to this country in our presidents.

Mrs. Cheryl Rensner to Retire

Mrs. Cheryl Rensner has announced that she will retire at the conclusion of our 2023-24 school year. We praise and thank God for her decades of service to Calvary Lutheran as well as to other Lutheran schools. Throughout her ministry, Cheryl has taught and shared God's love to hundreds of students ranging from Preschool through 8th grade. Cheryl has served as our Kindergarten through 2nd grade Interventionist providing response to instruction for these students for many years. Most recently she has filled our Kindergarten teacher vacancy. Cheryl also served as the Guidance Counselor at The Lutheran High School.

Cheryl has contributed greatly to Calvary's ministry beyond classroom responsibilities. She has served on many committees and has been our school FACTS/Renweb administrator for many years. We will greatly miss Mrs. Rensner. We thank her for the seeds that have been sown through God's Word and Spirit. She has been and continues to be a witness of God's love to our faculty and staff. We ask the Lord to walk beside Cheryl as He opens new doors for her.

A Celebration of Ministry for Mrs. Cheryl Rensner will be held in the spring. Please look for updates when specific plans are determined.

February 2024

Jesus Lifts You Up

February 4, 2024 – Fifth Sunday After the Epiphany

Rev. Shayne Jonker

Think of every healing you experience, whether it be getting over a cold or the flu, or something even greater, as more than dodging the bullet or getting a little favor from God. Think of it as a little resurrection. A little instance of being lifted up by the hand of God. Think of it, not as an end, but as a little sneak preview of a greater coming attraction, the day that Jesus comes to you and extends His hand to you and lifts you up from death to eternal life.

Sermon Text: Mark 1:31

Readings: Psalm 147:1-11; Isaiah 40:21-31; Mark 1:29-39

Significant Days Ahead

February 11, 2024 – Transfiguration Observed

Rev. Paul Shoemaker

Jesus transfigured Himself, revealing His glory to Peter, James, and John. He knew there would be significant days ahead, especially during Holy Week. By revealing His glory Jesus was sharing with His disciples what was in store for them in the glory of heaven. As we have significant days in our lives, we remember the transfiguration of Jesus to encourage us in our life's journey.

Sermon Text: Mark 9:2-9

Readings: Psalm 50:1-6; Exodus 34:29-35; Mark 9:2-9

What Good is This?

February 18, 2024 – First Sunday in Lent

Rev. William Mueller

Genesis 22 takes us to one of the more challenging sections of God's Word. Does God condone sacrificing your children? Of course not! But what is God up to in this incident where He tells Abraham to sacrifice Isaac? What good is God up to in our lives when He allows all sorts of pain and problems?

Sermon Text: Genesis 22:1-18

Readings: Psalm 25:1-10; Genesis 22:1-18; Mark 1:9-15

Life's Greatest Question

February 25, 2024 – Second Sunday in Lent

Rev. Dr. Thomas Ahlersmeyer

Can you answer Life's Greatest Question? Your eternal destiny, as well as your approach to everyday life, rests upon your answer. What's the question? How will you answer?

Sermon Text: Mark 8:29-31

Readings: Psalm 22:23-31; Romans 5:1-11; Mark 8:27-38
