

Sunday AM Sermon – April 28, 2024

They Have No Excuse for their Sin

John 15:18-25

Eve blamed the serpent. Adam blamed Eve (and God). Even when we admit sin, humans like to have an excuse for it. Pride is an awful master. Yet, Jesus has taken away all our excuses. After all, we don't need excuses, we need a Savior.

1. Mark the number of times you hear these words:
Excuse(s) –
Jesus –
Guilt(y) –
2. Instead of appreciation, what did the man who hosted a banquet receive (Luke 14)?
3. Why do people like excuses?
4. Point #1: _____ with Christ is likely to _____ you
5. What is Jesus looking for, and what is He not looking for?
6. Why does the world hate Jesus?
7. What did Jesus mean by “the world”?
8. Point #2: What Jesus _____ makes us all _____
9. According to John 3:19, what was the reaction to Jesus?
10. What two things did Jesus do that convicted the world of guilt?
11. Why can we not claim, “I didn't know”?
12. Why can we not claim, “God is not fair”?
13. What do guilty people often do?
14. What does it mean to be friends of the world?
15. Despite humanity's rebellion and rejection, what has Jesus done for us?
16. What was the purpose of the law (Romans 3:19)?
