Joseph: Prosperity and Protecting

Genesis 47:13-15, 23-25

Two different types of tests both examine the same thing: What's truly in you? Adversity and prosperity reveal what you're made of and what your character is. If we submit to God, He can use both to perfect us. That's what Joseph did.

1. Mark the number of times you hear these words:

Servant or serve(s) –

Famine –

Disciples –

2. What gives the most accurate revelation of what people believe?

3. Who chose to be a bully instead of a servant?

4. What are some of the dangers of prosperity?

5. Lesson one: A good servant sees a _____ and _____ it

6. What are some reasons that people fail to be good servants?

7. How did Jesus illustrate being a good servant?

8. Lesson two: A good servant gives _____ _____ to his _____

9. What is workplace betrayal?

10. What did Jesus say would happen if we try to serve two masters?

11. Lesson three: A good servant _____ the _____ and _____ of those he serves

12. What did Jesus feel for those who were worried and helpless?

13. How did Joseph help people get through the famine years?

14. What can be hard for servant leaders, especially during a crisis?

15. What happens when you walk with God?

16. What do we learn about God's identity from this scene in Joseph's life?
