Joseph: Honoring and Heritage

Genesis 47:27-31

God commands us to honor our parents. But what does that look like practically? Do we have to sing their praises from the mountains? Do we have to submit to their every wish? Do we have to live a perfect life? Joseph demonstrates again for disciples what honoring looks like.

1. Mark the number of times you hear these words:

Death or die –

Denial –

Honor(ing) –

2. Regarding how to live life, what makes sense for an unbeliever and a believer?

3. How are disciples supposed to treat their parents?

4. Lesson one: _____ about _____

5. How long are our lives?

6. What kind of things are helpful to talk about prior to death?

7. Lesson two: Only make _____ you _____ and _____

8. What do people need just as much as promise makers?

9. What happens when God makes promises?

10. Lesson three: _____ yourself to _____

11. According to Ecclesiastes 7, why is it better to go to funerals than to parties?

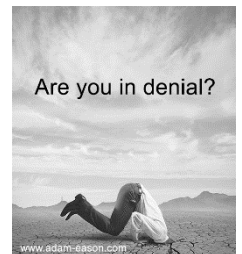

12. What will come from facing the realities of life?

13. How did Joseph react when his father died?

14. Why is denial unhealthy as a final response to death?

15. What will make dying physically not as hard?

16. What interesting thing did Jacob do after Joseph promised to take his body back to Canaan?
