

Sunday AM Sermon – December 15, 2024

Joseph: Heart and Home

Genesis 50:22-26

It's a cliché that has been painted, cross-stitched, published, spoken and felt. And it's true ... There's no place like home. The problem is: We don't seem to know where home is found. Joseph knew the location. After today, we will know too.

1. Mark the number of times you hear these words:

Joseph –
Promise(s) –
Home –

2. What marvelous words does Paul use to describe what God has prepared for those who love Him?
3. What do some people turn to so they can avoid or deny the reality of death?
4. Lesson one: Joseph _____
5. Why was Paul able to say that a prize was awaiting him (2 Timothy 4:7-8)?
6. What does it look like to finish strong?
7. What do we have to help us on our journey to the finish line?
8. Lesson two: Joseph _____ keeps His _____
9. What do people need to practice more?
10. What keeps us going when life is hard, confusing, painful, and discouraging?
11. Lesson three: Joseph _____ to go _____
12. What were Abraham and Sarah looking for?
13. What did Joseph make his brothers promise?
14. Give some ways the Bible writers describe the heavenly homeland.
15. How does Romans 8:28 apply to Joseph?
16. What happened to the memory of Joseph in Egypt?
