

Sunday AM Sermon – September 21, 2025

Your Child and These Words

Deuteronomy 11:16-21

We all know the power of words to build up or tear down. Words are particularly important to children since they come to us as somewhat blank slates. So here on Baby Blessing Day, we want to encourage parents as we remind them of the power of these words.

1. Mark the number of times you hear these words:

Parents –
Children –
Words –

2. Why did Moses give his sermon as the Israelites were about to enter the Promised Land?
3. What is God's plan for generational faith?
4. What is the main job of parenting?
5. Verb #1: _____ these words
6. What does it mean to impress?
7. Verb #2: _____ about these words
8. What are some ways to normalize God-talk in our homes?
9. Verb #3: _____ these words
10. What is significant about the word re-member?
11. Verb #4: _____ these words
12. What is the point of mezuzahs?
13. Verb #5: _____ these words
14. Verb #6: _____ these words
15. What are some things parents can do to make these words real?
16. What years are most crucial in the development of a person's values, character, and beliefs?

Faith Talk, Faith Walk

Spend time with family or friends (maybe over a meal or during a family devotional) discussing the following related to the sermon

Faith Talk: What do you think is the most dangerous road and why?

Faith Walk: Prepare yourself for the roads ahead. First, avoid, if you can. If not, U-turn!

If you are here and have been touched or convicted by something said or done today we would love to study the Bible with you and introduce you more fully to our Savior, Jesus Christ. Just call the church office at 795-4377 and we will set something up. God bless you!

Next Sunday AM Sermon – Filled (Ephesians 3:14-21)