

Light

Ephesians 5:3-14

One of the amazing powers in our universe is light. We don't have life without it. Jesus described Himself as the light of the world. Then he turned around and told us that we are the light of the world. Paul picked up that theme in this section of his letter to the Ephesians.

1. Mark the number of times you hear these words:

Light –
Darkness –
Desire(s) –

2. What impresses you about what King David wrote in Psalm 63?
3. Why did Paul spend so much time writing about the topics he did?
4. Lesson one: _____ what is _____ for _____ (5:3-4)
5. What did James say is the reason we have fights and arguments?
6. What do Christ followers know about sex?
7. Why is there not to be a hint of sexual immorality among disciples of Christ?
8. With what are we to replace dark desires and foolish talk?
9. Lesson two: Make a _____ between _____ and _____ (5:5-8a)
10. Who will not inherit the Kingdom of God?
11. What distinguishes followers of Christ?
12. Describe the boundaries between light and darkness.
13. Lesson three: Let the _____ of Christ _____ you (5:8b-14)
14. Why do surgeons, lost people, and preachers with blurry vision use bright lights?
15. What are some examples of doing relationships differently?
16. What do strong lights expose, and why is that ok?
17. What are true of the deepest desires of your heart?
18. How did Jesus boil it all down?

Faith Talk, Faith Walk

Spend time with family or friends (maybe over a meal or during a family devotional) discussing the following related to the sermon

Faith Talk: How has light blessed your life, and how has darkness cursed it?

Faith Walk: Welcome the light of Christ into you, and then shine because you are the light of the world!

If you are here and have been touched or convicted by something said or done today we would love to study the Bible with you and introduce you more fully to our Savior, Jesus Christ. Just call the church office at 795-4377 and we will set something up. God bless you!
