

Sunday AM Sermon - November 23, 2025

A Song of Thanksgiving

Psalm 100

There is much to be thankful for. Unfortunately, many people focus on the part of their cup that is empty rather than the part that is full. Today, we are giving thanks and praising God for the fullness of His generosity, and being generous ourselves.

1. Mark the number of times you hear these words:

Thanks(giving) –

Greatness –

Praise –

2. What are some of the standard answers of things we are thankful for?
3. What does the Psalmist in Psalm 100 assume?
4. How do we reorient our hearts and minds?
5. What screams of God's creative design and powerful works?
6. What stands out to you about the story James Allison told?
7. What stands out to you about what Santiago Rodriguez said about the Blessing Center?
8. Before Jesus gave the bread to His disciples to eat for Passover, what did He do?
9. What is the Greek word for thanksgiving?
10. What Jewish feasts mirror Thanksgiving in some ways?
11. What is the difference between the mythical gods and Yahweh?
12. What stands out to you about the story Brandon Autrey told?
