

notes.

THE FINAL AUDIT

FEBRUARY 16, 2020

BEVAN UNRAU

Malachi 4:1-6

1. The Priority Effect.

Malachi 4:1

2. The Fire Effect.

Malachi 4:1

3. The Sunrise Effect.

Malachi 4:2

4. The Grace Effect.

Malachi 4:5-6, Luke 1:17

Today's Music

God Is Alive - Steve Fee
Enough - Elias Dummer
O Come to the Altar - Elevation Worship
Build My Life - Chris Tomlin

Growth Group Homework - February 16, 2020

Warm-Up

1. Have you ever put together something from Ikea? What was that like?
2. What is your reaction when a police officer pulls up across from you at a stop sign?

Talk It Over

3. Looking back at your notes from this week's message, what did you find most challenging or helpful?
4. Read the following passages. How would you summarize what these passages reveal?

Ezekiel 18:23

John 3:16-18

Ephesians 2:8-9

- If a person is considering following Christ, what could be some questions or obstacles to these passages?
- If you have accepted God's gift, how has the truth of these passages impacted you?

5. Read the following passages. What do these three passages have in common?

Matthew 6:24

Matthew 7:13-14

Matthew 7:24-27

6. How does Jesus' teaching in the passages we have read compare with the Malachi Audit? What similarities do you see?
7. Bevan talked about how we build our life by feel or by faith. In what ways is this at work in the Matthew passages?
 - What are some of the indications that we are building our lives either by feel or by faith?

Take It Home

8. Can you think of any safeguards that would help us build by faith instead of by feel? Is there a next step you could take?