

Questions

1. What is a work God has done that you can reflect on this week to meditate on His greatness and the strength that He supplies for His people?
2. Is there an unbeliever that you will commit to praying for this week; that, even in His justice, God would show that person mercy?
3. What is at least one way that God's powerful control over nature was evident in the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt?
4. Habakkuk 3:13 shows God pouring out His wrath on enemy nations to deliver His people. How does that look forward to the cross?
5. Consider God's rule over the heavens and the earth. What are some of the majestic displays of God's power that you've witnessed in nature? How do they shape your faith in Him?
6. How have you experienced a reverential fear of God?
7. What was the one supreme reason that Habakkuk had for rejoicing when his nation was facing a catastrophic disaster? What do you say to the person who asks how God can be enough when there is nothing else to give you encouragement?

Rejoicing While Waiting

Habakkuk 3 is the prophet's response to all that God had revealed about the coming disaster for Judah and the judgment to follow on Babylon. In this glorious psalm, we learn four ways for waiting on God when we face chaos or suffering.

Four practical ways we can honor God and experience His peace even amid chaos:

1. Revive (3:2)

2.Remember (3:3-15)

4.Rejoice (3:17-19)

3.Revere (3:16)
