

Questions

1. Read Luke 15:3-10. What lesson was Jesus teaching through these two parables?
2. In what way(s) can you see yourself in the youngest son?
3. Can you recall a time before God saved you when there were painful or difficult circumstances that were part of what God used to draw you to Himself?
4. How does Luke 15:18 describe the son's repentance? But how does 15:19 show that the son still was lacking in his understanding of the father?
5. Read Luke 15:20-24. What was the primary cause for celebration?
6. Are there ways in which you've struggled to appreciate God's work of grace in another person's life?

Luke 15:11-32

Doug Sachtleben

Lead Pastor

May 26, 2024

The parable of the lost son urges believers to align our heart's desires with our heavenly Father's desire to save lost sinners.

Jesus was addressing two audiences (15:1-2)

The parables of the lost sheep and the lost coin (15:3-10) illustrate how great the rejoicing is in heaven when a sinner repents.

After each service, if you need prayer, someone will be available up front to pray with you.

gbclorton.com/sermons

The younger son's despicable rebellion (15:11-13)

The father's mercy (15:20-24)

The lost son hits rock bottom (15:14-16)

The older son's scorn (15:25-30)

The lost son's repentance (15:17-19, 21)

The heart of the father (15:31-32)