MESSY CHURCH
MIGHTY CHRIST

If any of you has a dispute against another, how dare you take it to court before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? ²Or don't you know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the trivial cases? ³Don't you know that we will judge angels—how much more matters of this life?

⁴So if you have such matters, do you appoint as your judges those who have no standing in the church? ⁵I say this to your shame! Can it be that there is not one wise person among you who is able to arbitrate between fellow believers? ⁶Instead, brother goes to court against brother, and that before unbelievers!

⁹ For this reason also, since the day we heard this, we haven't stopped praying for you. We are asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, ¹⁰ so that you may walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him: bearing fruit in every good work and growing in the knowledge of God,

⁷ As it is, to have legal disputes against one another is already a defeat for you. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated? ⁸ Instead, you yourselves do wrong and cheat—and you do this to brothers and sisters!

⁹Don't you know that the unrighteous will not inherit God's kingdom? Do not be deceived: No sexually immoral people, idolaters, adulterers, or males who have sex with males;¹⁰ no thieves, greedy people, drunkards, verbally abusive people, or swindlers will inherit God's kingdom. ¹¹And some of you used to be like this. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

The question – don't you know – usually introduces a section in which Paul is especially concerned about their practice or behavior in the Christian life. It often occurs where he makes a theological statement that they should know but appear to be ignoring in the way they live. The main impact of the rhetorical device, however, is that it makes it clear that Paul regards what he is saying as foundational theology to be accepted by all, even if some at Corinth have apparently missed the point.
