What Did Jesus Say and Do

His Training Series: Getting Their Feet Wet

Mark 6:7-13

by Pastor Jon Hathorn

REVIEW OF HIS TRAINING

Two weeks ago, we started this series Jesus Training of His followers

- Step 1 - Have an attitude of saying yes – be obedient
- Step 2 - Following and learning
- Today - It's about Getting Our Feet Wet

Most jobs are easier and more productive, when someone is working with you.

When the 12 disciples broke into groups of two - The reach was dramatically increased

RECEIVING AUTHORITY

- Verse 7 “Jesus gave them authority”
- The authority they had, was the authority of Jesus

A STEP OF FAITH

- Verifying who you trust
- Leave everything at home

“Without faith it is impossible to please God.”

Hebrews 11:6

THE VALUE OF ONE ANOTHER

- Value of Another - Not alone
 - You will be believed “Two or three witnesses”
 - The Scriptures are full of “one another” verses – over 50
- “Two are better than one because they have a good return for their work. If one falls down the other can help him up.” Ecclesiastes 4:9-10*

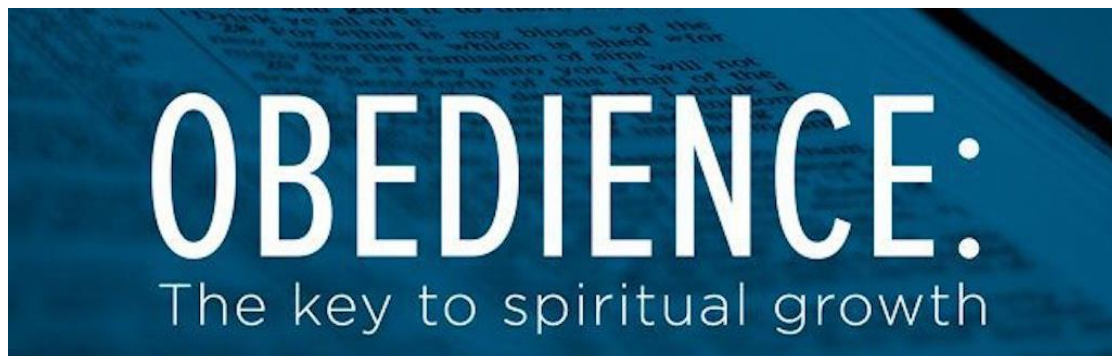

SALVATION REQUIRES REPENTANCE

- What is repentance – it is an act of asking for forgiveness and changing our ways
- It is so much more than lip service

Psalm 51

- State that it is sin
- Appeal to God’s Mercy
- Repentance is avoiding being defensive or making excuses
- Realizing Jesus is our need
- Be broken
- Find comfort through Him
- Desire a Godly life

Determine to be Obedient

Deacon Message

Jesus offered these wonderful words of encouragement to those who serve his flock. And these are words that resound today through your gifts to the church and to the Deacons' Fund. Because of your generosity, several camperships were awarded to a number of youth so they could attend winter camp this past weekend. This camp feeds hungry souls and revives parched minds with teachings about the Living Water. The deacons wish to thank everyone who contributes to the Deacons' Fund so that we can pass on these blessings to those who hunger and thirst both literally and figuratively.
