

MEMPHIS FELLOWS

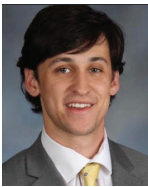

Welcome to the 2022–23 Class of Fellows! The Fellows Program is an intensely practical nine-month spiritual and vocational leadership program that prepares the Fellows to live a seamless life of faith. The program includes a part-time job in a field of interest, biblical coursework, Bible study, mentoring, and service. All of this takes place in community within the context of the local church. This is our 18th class of Fellows at Second Presbyterian Church!

Anna Handloser graduated from Arkansas State University with a degree in Strategic Communications and a minor in Theatre. She is originally from Sheridan, Arkansas. In her free time, she likes to play guitar, sew, run, and play with her dogs. This year, she's eager to be a part of the 2PC community and grow in biblical knowledge. She will be working at Monogram Foods, mentored by Stacey Hays, and living with Brandon, Rachel, Blake, Andrew, and Evan Hammons.

Yasmine (Yas) Isom graduated from Southeast Missouri State University with a degree in Business Administration. She is originally from St. Louis. In her free time, Yas enjoys playing sports, listening to music, singing, dancing, playing instruments, and making music of her own. This year, she's eager to experience Christ-centered community with the Fellows. She will be working at The Salvation Army, mentored by Lacey Moody, and living with Brian, Ann, Matthew, Micah, and Suzanne Lankford.

Clayton (Mosie) Kirby graduated from the University of Mississippi with a degree in Accounting. He is originally from Ocean Springs, Mississippi. For fun, Mosie enjoys playing chess, music, and pickleball, as well as working out. This year, he hopes to grow closer to God, experience deep community with the Fellows, and make life-long friends. He will be working at Advance Memphis, mentored by Bill Overcast, and living with Seth, Julia, Adam, Merritt, and Lawson Harkins.

KeNasha (Keke) Moffett graduated from the University of Memphis with a degree in Psychology (minor in Child Development). She is originally from Chicago. In her free time, she enjoys listening to music and hanging out with friends. This year, she hopes to learn more about God and His Word as well as to gain community as she transitions from the college context. She will be working with the CPC and the 2PC Children's Ministry, mentored by Maddy Bobango, and living with Allison Garrott.

Edy Smith graduated with a degree in Finance from the University of Tennessee. She is originally from Florence, Alabama. In her free time, she likes to go for walks, play pickle ball, and enjoy good coffee. She's eager to get involved with our church and hopes to achieve a better knowledge of how to be both a disciple and a disciple-maker. Her workplace is to be determined, but she will be mentored by Katie Harris and will live with Walt, Betsy, Hunter, Graham, and Hutch Wepfer.
