

LIFE GROUP QUESTIONS

Discussion about the Lord's work in your lives

Leaders: The remembering of Jesus' death and resurrection is a great time for us to reflect on God's work of grace in our lives through the years. Give intentional time, conversation, and praise to the Lord's work, with particular emphasis on the impact of Jesus' death and resurrection in our lives.

Read Psalm 145:1-14 – This Psalm highlights God's greatness, goodness, and grace shown in the lives of His people.

Questions:

1. Read Psalm 145:1-3 – Consider God's greatness: How has the Lord demonstrated His greatness to you lately or through the years?
2. What is particularly powerful to you this year as you think about Jesus' victory over death, sin, and Satan through His resurrection?
3. Read Psalm 145:4-7 – Consider God's goodness: How has God worked in your life or the lives of others around you in meaningful and momentous ways? This could be in the near or more distant past.
4. Read Psalm 145:8-9 – Consider God's grace: How have you experienced the Lord's grace in your life recently?
5. What particularly stands out to you this year about what Jesus accomplished through His death in your place?