MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

Cornerstone Family,

As we move into February, a month traditionally associated with Valentine's Day, it is the perfect time to turn our hearts toward one of the most radiant Fruits of the Spirit: JOY. While the world often treats joy and happiness as the same thing, Scripture teaches us a deeper truth. Happiness shifts with circumstances, but joy is something much more steady and dependable. It is a quiet confidence that flows from God's presence within us.

Joy doesn't rise and fall with our emotions. It is not something we force, manufacture, or pretend to have. True joy is rooted in who God is, not in how we feel. It remains steady even in seasons when life feels uncomfortable or unsettled. We can cling to this joy because it is anchored in the unchanging character of the One we trust.

Galatians 5:22 reminds us that joy is the natural result of walking with the Spirit. We don't have to strive for it; we simply stay connected to the Source. As we do, joy begins to grow quietly and powerfully in our lives.

May we open our hearts to God's delight, look for reasons to rejoice each day, and generously share that joy with everyone we encounter!

Scripture: James 1:2-4

2 Consider it a great joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you experience various trials, 3 because you know that the testing of your faith produces endurance. 4 And let endurance have its full effect, so that you may be mature and complete, lacking nothing.

Reflection Question: How have I seen God's joy at work in my life when circumstances were difficult?

Prayer: Lord, teach me to walk in Your joy. Help me stay connected to Your Spirit so that joy naturally flows from my life. Strengthen me with a joy that remains steady in every season and use me to share that joy with others. Amen.

UTC Bible

STUDY CLASSES

February 4 - May 13

UTC 2026

UTC is the University of Transformation at Cornerstone - where we study God's Word, learn the spiritual disciplines to grow closer to Christ, and apply His truths to transform our daily lives.

Read the class descriptions being offered for the Spring 2026 semester, then select the class you would like to participate in. The registration section is listed below the descriptions.

A Women's Discipleship Study

Shenika Lewis, Instructor

$10 Book Fee

For many women, sexuality has been shaped by a mixture of silence, expectations, personal experiences, and unspoken assumptions, often more than by Scripture itself. Some learned early what was "allowed" or "forbidden," but were never invited to understand God's heart, His design, or His redemptive purpose. Others carry questions, tension, or quiet struggles they've never known how to bring into the light.

This 11-week discipleship study is open to both single and married women and is designed to be a thoughtful, grace-filled space for spiritual formation. Together, we will examine long-held beliefs and allow God's Word to speak clearly and compassionately into an area that deeply shapes identity, relationships, and faith. This is not a space for pressure, comparison, or quick answers. It is a space for truth, reflection, healing, and growth.

Whether you are single, dating, engaged, or married, and no matter what your story includes, you are welcome here. Come ready to listen, learn, and be shaped as we explore God's design for sexuality with honesty, wisdom, and grace.

Acts and Selected Pauline Epistles

Dr. Edsel Dureus, Instructor

Students will study key events in the birth and growth of the early church and gain an understanding of each book's historical background, structure, purpose, and message. Emphasis is placed on learning how to read and interpret different biblical genres and seeing how these writings fit within the broader story of the New Testament. The course encourages spiritual formation, Christlikeness, and discipleship by equipping students with biblical skills for faithful living and teaching others. Class sessions include discussion, guided interpretation, and interaction with the instructor and fellow students.

TRANSFORMATION BASICS

Rev. JP Wilson, Instructor

No Fee

On the spiritual journey of Life in Jesus it is wise for us to go back to basics. Go back to where it all began, Go back to our first love. We need the basics! Jesus mentions this sentiment to the church in Ephesus when he said, "I have this against you: You have abandoned the love you had at first." (Revelation 2:4). He encouraged the church to go back to where it all started. When we realized God's love for us and our love for Him!

In TRANSFORMATION BASICS Pastor JP Wilson explores the basics of our journey in Jesus for the Kingdom of God in 8 Weeks. Let's invest in our transformation to be like Jesus.

GOD IS: The Names of God Book Fee $0

Wednesday Women's Daytime Study @11am Vera McKissic & Carolyn Thornton, Instructors

Explore the depths of divine revelation with "God Is: The Names of God," a compelling Bible study for those seeking a deeper understanding of the sacred.

Our names are important to us. The first question we often ask a person is "What's your name?" As we get to know people, their names become more than just words or a name tag; they bring to mind the personality and character of the person.

In the same way, the many names of God revealed in Scripture tell us much about who He is. Those names invite us to know Him in a growing, intimate relationship. In this Bible study you will examine six of those names more closely. In doing so, we'll get a glimpse of the infinite character of our loving God.

This class is held in person and on Zoom. This class is the daytime study for women only.
