I Am A Member

Teachers: Pastor and Sis. McKissic

Discovering the Attitude that Makes the Difference

Your life is full of decisions. Becoming a member of the local church is a major decision. This eight-week study will help church members of Cornerstone move from inactive or barely committed members to giving, serving, and participating in a consistently biblical manner. It will help members who are involved to get a better understanding of how to be a valuable member of the church. This class will be offered in person and on Zoom. If you received your copy after completing New Member's orientation you can use that book.

Book fee is $7.00 for those who need a copy of the book.
