Beyond the Letter

Matthew 5: 33 - 48

For Discussion

1. How can we love our enemies even when they've hurt us?
2. In what ways can you understand others better?
3. Why is it so hard to serve someone without being asked?

Here are some action steps to help you relate more deeply this week:

- Let your first response be love towards those that frustrate you.
- Listen to those with whom you may have differing views.
- Pray for someone who's hurt you because prayer changes hearts.
- Offer to serve someone before you're asked (parent, spouse, friend, or family)

Which one(s) will you try? Who can you ask to help you?
