Matthew 5:17-37
“The Eyes Have it”

Things to think about/discuss:

- Why is it so easy to label others?
- What kinds of problems can this create?
- Jesus says anger and lust start inside us. What can one do to deal with these thoughts before they become problems?
- Has anyone broken a promise to you? How did that make you feel?

Here are some action steps to help you relate more deeply this week:

- Learn about the culture or political views of someone different than you.
- Avoid using coarse or insulting words. Don't look at others as objects.
- Challenge labels and snap judgments that pop up in your mind.
- Don't watch shows, movies, or websites that are R, MA and beyond.
- If you struggle with anger, lust or breaking sacred promises, ask a friend to help you.
- Take positive steps to strengthen and deepen your family relationships.

Which one(s) will you try? Who can you ask to help you?
