Worship with a Whole Heart

READ - Psalm 111; Psalm 27; Romans 12:1-2

Today's devotion is in the form of a Psalm. Read it like a poem, with a prayer heart filled with praise.

In You, O God, I find my identity. When I come to seek You, I find that You are already here, seeking me. What gives my worship meaning is so much more than anything that I can do or say - it is You! You are the reason I came to exist, You are the giver of my next breath, and You are the reason for my continued being.

You are the reason I worship. I worship You with my whole heart. I come to worship You because of who You are! You are the one and only true God! I bring You praise because of Your holiness. You are so gracious to me, and You have already done more than enough for me to bring You thanksgiving. I worship You.

May my life bring glory to You, my Lord and my God. I want to worship You with my whole heart. I am not ashamed to declare my love and adoration for You before others. All I am is Yours, and I belong to you. I am Your possession. May You be pleased with my worship. I long to recapture a spirit of genuine worship, a personal revival of my whole being, heart, soul, and spirit. Heaven and earth declare Your glory, O God, and therefore so do I. All of creation submits to You, and so my life is surrendered to You. I worship You with my whole heart.

REFLECT

How can I be in God's presence and not be changed? Do you long to be the kind of worshipper that God has been looking for, fully devoted to Him and Him alone?

How has being in God's presence changed you?

Because everything we do can be an act of worship, how does this affect your view and more so, your attitude about common, everyday tasks?

PRAY

Humbly and yet confidently, I come into Your presence. I am relying on the promise of Christ, providing me the relationship with You as my Heavenly Father. Bring me fully into Your presence God. Lead me more fully into Your will so that every day of my life will be worship, offering a living sacrifice to bring You glory. In Jesus name, amen!
