SERVE

Loving Others with God's Heart

Small Group Questions Week 1 – The Head and the Heart

1. Josh talked about how God uses paradox's to help us understand the deeper things of God. One of those is slavery and freedom. Do you feel free? Do you feel like a slave? Please discuss what this looks like with and without Christ.

2. Read through Luke 10:38-42. What stands out to you? Are you more like Mary sitting at the feet of Jesus or are you more like Martha who is anxious and troubled about many things?

3. What is something that you would be willing to cut out of your schedule to make room to sit at the Lord's feet this week?

4. When was the last time you spent a good chunk of time just sitting with God and listening? What was that experience like for you? Do you wish you did this more or less?

5. Discuss the five main points of the sermon. 1. Surrender yourself to the Lord. 2. Examine your heart. 3. Return to the feet of Jesus. 4. Value your precious time. 5. Exercise your giftedness in serving.

6. Our time here on earth is fleeting. What do you think is a good balance of getting things done that need to be done and sitting at the Lord's feet?

7. Do you know how you are gifted spiritually? How are you using your gifts in serving?

8. The call on your life is to be a slave. What does that mean to you? In being a slave, do you feel imprisoned or do you feel freedom?

9. As a group discuss what you will be participating in this weekend for Serve the City.

10. Pray together that the Lord would use your group to help reach Long Beach and also that your group would be changed because of the service you are giving.
