What is Your Name #Called into Covenant

Scriptures
& “References”
Genesis 32:24-28

Sometimes you have to wait on the Lord to give you that strength and sometimes you may seek God and don't get anything, but I've learned something, God moves according to His own time line. By trusting and believing, how many of you know that God knows what you are in need of before you ask? You know you can trust God.

²⁴Then Jacob was left alone: and a Man wrestled with him until the breaking of day. ²⁵Now when He saw that He did not prevail against him, He touched the socket of his hip; and the socket of Jacob's hip was out of joint as he wrestled with him. ²⁶And he said, "let me go for the day breaks," But he said, "I will not let you go unless you bless me!" Anybody ever felt that way when you get in the presence of God? Sometimes it's time to shift and change but once you get ahold of God, you don't want to let go until you got what you need. ²⁷ So he said to him, "what is your name?" He said "Jacob." ²⁸ And he said, your name will no longer be Jacob but Israel for you have struggled with God and men and have prevailed. God will give detail when necessary. Sometimes He doesn't come when we want him too, but He comes when it's necessary. Like the elders say, "He may not come when you want him but He's always on time." Even though time has shifted, it did not disrupt His plan and the word for somebody's life today. No matter what happens in the midst of time, it has no effect on the plan God has for you. Sometimes God's plan exceeds your existence.

What is your name is a question that everyone should be able to answer when we meet or greet people if we never met them before. We will introduce ourselves and tell them our name. How many of you may know we may have fleshly encounters that have a spiritual connection behind it? You may never know who you are going to meet. Always be aware that sometimes you could be unaware and have an encounter with an angel. How many of you believe that or how God will show up?

Names are significant in the times we live in. Every name should have a significant meaning according to the word of God. Names have definitions and meaning. Some people get creative and give their children a name because it's catchy or cute but doesn't have any meaning. Some have messed up names. Sometimes there can be things done in your life to mess up your name. We should be at a place in our lives where we should be praying and be led by the Holy Spirit and we don't do anything to mess up God's name. That's why I ask, "Lord lead me and guide me because the steps of a good man is ordered by you, God. I won't do anything to mess up your name." His name should be exalted. There is power in the name of God and power in the name of Jesus. We can be very creative when it comes to giving children a name. Names can sometimes serve as a memorial to help us identify with the actual existence of an entity. An entity is something that exist, a state of being. God wants to change your name, your lives, your very existence. When God comes in, it changes everything. God is giving you a "do over." He is giving you another chance. What was badly said or spoken about you, evil or wicked, anything contrary to your existence, God wants to change the definition of your name to mean something more, to mean something in the spirit realm and its connection to your eternal future. Name means a mark of individuality, some form of honor or authority. Titles are given to describe what you do, When you were named, it attached the spiritual identification onto you. This is what happened to Jacob, he really didn't understand what God was doing to him when he had his encounter. Some of you right now, like Jacob, are wrestling with your destiny. You refuse to change what you use to be and use to be called. You have not accepted the grace God has put on your life and you can be called to what God has promised by way of the covenant, He wants to remind you that if you accept the change, you will be blessed.
