THE GATHERING OF GOD'S PEOPLE

WORSHIP REFLECTION

For any relationship to flourish, dialogue must occur. This is why the dialogical principle permeates our services. What do we specifically mean by this? In worship, God speaks to us, and then, God listens to us. By the power of the Holy Spirit, God challenges, comforts, and awakens us. Then, by the prompting of the Holy Spirit we listen and respond with praise, confession, petition, giving, and commitment.

A healthy life with God maintains a balance of attentive listening and honest speech. So does healthy worship. You can observe this dialogue in our services by noting the times when we listen to God and the times when we respond to God. Why is this important? Our words matter in worship; they are used by God to speak to us, and they carry our praise and prayer back to Him.

PRAYER OF PREPARATION

Almighty and everlasting God,
You govern all things both in heaven and on earth.
Mercifully hear the supplications of Your people,
and in our time grant us Your peace,
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit,

according to Your steadfast love remember me,
for the sake of Your goodness, O LORD!
Good and upright is the LORD;
therefore He instructs sinners in the way.
For Your name’s sake, O LORD, pardon my guilt, for it is great.
Turn to me and be gracious to me,
for I am lonely and afflicted.
The troubles of my heart are enlarged;
