

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH of
CHATTANOOGA

The Lord's Day

SUNDAY, MARCH 16, 2025

11:00 AM

At First Presbyterian, we seek to be a healthy church exhibiting all the fullness of Christ as we disciple believers who develop spiritually, connect relationally, and engage missionally to reach Chattanooga and the world with the gospel.

THE GATHERING OF GOD'S PEOPLE

WORSHIP REFLECTION

Welcome!

Please take a moment to reflect before the service begins. At First Presbyterian, our worship seeks to be God-centered, dialogical, and covenantal. This simply means you will notice a pattern of God speaking to us in His grace and our response to Him in adoration, praise, listening, and praying.*

During the service we invite you to participate by reading and singing the words printed in bold.

*Parts of these explanations are derived from Covenant PCA, Nashville, TN and Covenant PCA, Chattanooga, TN.

Today, we have the immense privilege of celebrating the Lord's Supper.

In this meal, Jesus gives Himself to us and would have us yield ourselves fully to Him. The lessons of the Supper are multiple.

It is a feast of remembrance, covenant, and love.

During communion, we participate in an activity that commemorates a past event and looks forward to a future consummation.

It is a memorial of faith and a declaration of hope that Christ has died, Christ has risen, and Christ will come again.

It calls us to meditate on a crucified Savior's love, a living Savior's intercession, and a coming Savior's glory.

We come to the Lord's Table not because we are strong, but because we are weak.

We come because we need God's mercy and help.

We come because we love the Lord and want to experience more of His love.

Therefore, we lift up our hearts and minds above our cares and fears, and let this bread and wine be to us

the token and pledge of the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God the Father, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, all meant for us if we will receive them in humble faith.

PRAYER OF PREPARATION

Heavenly Father,
We come before You in humility,
knowing that our sufficiency comes from You alone.
Prepare our hearts to receive Your truth.
Open our eyes to see Your beauty, soften our hearts to embrace Your will,
and quicken our souls by the power of the Holy Spirit.
May Your life-giving Spirit shape our thoughts, purify our desires, and direct our steps.
Fill us afresh with Your Spirit,
so that we might walk in the newness of life that Christ has secured for us.
May He guide, strengthen, and encourage us,
so that we bear witness to Your goodness, truth and love.
For we pray in Jesus's name, Amen.

THE PRAISE OF GOD'S PEOPLE

CHORAL INTROIT

Sanctuary Choir

*"Come, Thou Almighty King"
Please sing as directed*

Come, Thou Almighty King, help us Thy name to sing; Help us to praise.
Father, all-glorious, o'er all victorious, come and reign over us, Ancient of Days.

Come, Holy Comforter, Thy sacred witness bear in this glad hour.
Thou Who almighty art, now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart, Spirit of pow'r.

To the great One in Three eternal praises be hence evermore.
His sovereign majesty may we in glory see, and to eternity love and adore.

Amen.

Come, Thou Almighty King.

† Please stand
as you are able

Call to Worship

Only God Himself can call us into worship. He sets the terms for worship because, through His Son, He makes worship possible.

Invocation

This prayer addresses God in three persons, asking Him to be present with us in worship to help us worship Him according to His will.

† CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 95:1-3 ESV

Pastor: Oh come, let us sing to the LORD;
let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!
Let us come into His presence with thanksgiving;

People: Let us make a joyful noise to Him
with songs of praise!
For the LORD is a great God,
and a great King above all gods.

PRAYER OF INVOCATION

† HYMN OF PRAISE

No. 1 (vv. 1-4)

“All People That on Earth Do Dwell”

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice.
Him serve with fear; His praise forthtell.
Come ye before Him and rejoice.

The Lord, ye know, is God indeed;
Without our aid He did us make.
We are His folk; He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.

O enter then His gates with praise;
Approach with joy His courts unto.
Praise, laud, and bless His name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

For why? The Lord our God is good;
His mercy is forever sure.
His truth at all times firmly stood
And shall from age to age endure.

Amen.

Affirmation of Faith

Since the time of ancient Israel, believers have confessed their faith publicly (Deut. 6:4). Following this practice, we confess our faith each week, using the historic creeds and symbols of the church for the past two thousand years.

Confession of Sin

Within the context of our relationship with God, we are invited in safety, not in shame, to confess our sins. We rehearse this truth each week by confessing our sins corporately, then silently. As we do, we learn that God is always ready to forgive us.

Assurance of Pardon

Scripture assures us, sinners saved by grace, that we are united to Jesus in His death and Resurrection.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Westminster Shorter Catechism Q&A 1

Pastor: What is the chief end of man?

People: Man's chief end is to glorify God,
and to enjoy Him forever.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Our merciful Father,
we thank You that You never allow us comfort
when we are not walking with You.
When we refuse to confess our sins
You give us an inward ache,
as though our bones were wasting away,
and we groan with an inaudible roar of guilt.
You keep Your hand heavy upon us.
We thank You for that You will hear and answer
when we ask for forgiveness.
When we confess our sins to You,
we receive real forgiveness for real guilt,
and the ache and the heaviness disappear.
Loving Father, thank You for the blessed discomfort that You bring to us when we are away from You.
Hear us as we now confess our sins
in these moments of silence.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Romans 5:1 ESV

Therefore, since we have been justified by faith,
we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

PASTORAL PRAYER

Presentation of Tithes & Offerings

The Bible tells us to set aside a portion of our income and additional offerings of our resources for the work of God, for His glory. These acts of giving display of our joyful dependence upon God rather than ourselves.

Gloria Patri

The Gloria Patri is a doxology, which is a hymn or word of praise to God for His goodness and glory.

Sermon

The Bible teaches that faith comes through hearing God's word (Romans 10:17). The sermon is an exposition and application of the Biblical text which aims to present Christ, in all His glory, as the all-sufficient Savior.

OFFERTORY

Sanctuary Choir

“Jesus Paid It All” arr. Sterling

I hear the Savior say, “Thy strength indeed is small!
Child of weakness, watch and pray;
Find in Me thine all in all.”

Chorus: Jesus paid it all; all to Him I owe.

Sin had left a crimson stain; He washed it white as snow.

For nothing good have I whereby Thy grace to claim.
I'll wash my garments white in the blood of Calv'ry's Lamb. Chorus

And when before the throne I stand in Him complete, “Jesus died my soul to save,” my lips shall still repeat. Chorus

GREETING & DISMISSAL TO CHILDREN'S CHURCH

Please take your PreK-1st grade children to the check-in station at the 1st – 3rd grade Children's Wing on the first floor behind the Sanctuary.

†GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father and to the Son,
And to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning,
Is now, and ever shall be,
World without end,
Amen, amen.

THE WORD FOR GOD'S PEOPLE

SERMON

“The Spirit Gives Life”

THE TABLE OF THE LORD

COMMUNION

Reflection available on p. 9

- Communion, also called the Lord's Supper or the Eucharist, is the family meal of Christians when we recall Jesus's cross, relive His anguish, and renew our vows to live as His followers.
- We invite all to participate in this meal: who profess faith in Jesus Christ, who are members of a gospel-proclaiming church, who are endeavoring to live at peace with God and others, and who seek strengthening grace to live more faithfully for Jesus.
- If you are not yet a follower of Jesus, we encourage you to spend this time considering Jesus's broken body and shed blood. Pray and ask Him to forgive your sins and to give you eternal life.

†HYMN OF RESPONSE

"Jesus, My Great High Priest"

Jesus, my great High Priest, offered His blood and died;
My guilty conscience seeks no sacrifice beside.
His pow'ful blood did once atone, and now it pleads before the throne.

To this dear Surety's hand will I commit my cause;
He answers and fulfils His Father's broken laws.
Behold my soul at freedom set; my Surety paid the dreadful debt.

My Advocate appears for my defense on high;
The Father bows His ears and lays His thunder by.
Not all that hell or sin can say shall turn His heart, His love, away.

Should all the hosts of death and pow'rs of hell unknown
Put their most dreadful forms of rage and mischief on,
I shall be safe, for Christ displays His conqu'ring pow'r and guardian grace.

Amen

THE SENDING OF GOD'S PEOPLE

Benediction

The Bible tells us that God gets the first word and the last word in worship. A benediction is from the Latin terms for “good word.” At the end of each service, God sends us into the world with His blessing as we seek to love our community in the power of the Holy Spirit!

† BENEDICTION

adapted from Numbers 6:24-26 ESV

The LORD bless you and keep you;
the LORD make His face to shine upon you
and be gracious to you;
the LORD lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace both now and in the life everlasting. Amen.

Today’s Flowers

The Sanctuary flowers are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Karen Fisher and her godly legacy to her family: husband, Dick Fisher, daughters Dorothy George and Jessica (Andy) Hansen, and the Hansen grandchildren. “. . . Worthy is the Lamb Who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!”

Revelation 5:12.

The flowers will be arranged by the Flower Committee and delivered by volunteers to our homebound and hospitalized on Monday, March 17.

We encourage you to take this bulletin home and use it for personal worship and devotions this week.

COMMUNION REFLECTION

The Apostle Paul urges all believers who come to the Lord's table to examine themselves before taking communion: "Everyone ought to examine themselves before they eat of the bread and drink from the cup." (1 Corinthians 11:28)

The below is a guide for confession of sin called "The Traits of the Self-Life." Please use it to prepare your hearts to participate in the Lord's Supper. As you read, examine yourself in the presence of God and ask the Holy Spirit to help you identify, confess, and hate pride, selfishness, and rebellion in your life. Are you ever conscious of . . .

- A secret spirit of pride? An exalted feeling in view of your success or position; because of your good training, appearance, or success; because of your natural gifts and abilities?
- An important, independent spirit? Love of human praise; a secret fondness to be noticed; love of supremacy, drawing attention to self in conversation?
- The stirrings of anger or impatience, which, worst of all, you call nervousness or holy indignation; a touchy, sensitive spirit; a disposition to resent or retaliate when disapproved of or contradicted; a desire to throw sharp, heated flings at another?
- An argumentative, talkative spirit; harsh, sarcastic expressions; a headstrong disposition?
- A commanding spirit; a disposition to criticize and pick flaws when set aside and unnoticed?
- Carnal fear; a man-fearing spirit; a shrinking from reproach and duty?
- A jealous disposition, a secret spirit of envy shut up in your heart; a disposition to speak of the faults and failings of others, rather than affirming their gifts and virtues?
- Unbelief; a spirit of discouragement in times of pressure and opposition?

By prayer, hold your heart open to the searchlight of our gracious Father until you see His Spirit softening your heart and resolve to confess these traits and ask the Spirit to replace them with His fruit. (Galatians 5:22-23)

Rejoice knowing that Jesus Himself bore all of your sins in His body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness. (1 Peter 2:24)

Call upon the Holy Spirit to empower you to put your "self-life" to death; beseech the Lord, like David did: "Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me." (Psalms 51:10)

Oh, to be saved from myself, dear Lord; oh, to be lost in Thee; oh, that it might be no more I, but Christ Who lives in me. Amen.

New Medical Missions Subcommittee

World Missions’s new subcommittee is working to facilitate global medical assistance to ministries and churches involved in using medicine to reach communities for the gospel. Committee members are working to increase the capacity of First Pres to send short-term teams in response to requests for medical assistance at home and abroad. If you’re interested in learning more about this ministry, pick up one of our brochures in the Connector!

Congregational Care Reminder

If you know of anyone in the church who’s grieving, has been hospitalized, or is suffering any kind of sickness, please reach out to the Congregational Care Ministry and let us know so we may provide flowers, a meal, a visit, and/or prayer. Our team of volunteers is one of the many vital parts of 1st Pres, and we need your help to make sure we reach everyone within our church family! You can contact the church office at 423-267-1206 or Office@1stPresbyterian.com.

New Addition

Rejoice and be in prayer for the additions to families within our congregation: William Augustine Taylor, born March 4 to First Pres members Charis & Ben Taylor and big brother James.

Recently Bereaved

Please be in prayer for those in our congregation who have recently lost a loved one: the family of First Pres member Annette Craig, in her passing on March 10. A celebration of life visitation will be held March 23 at Ryan Funeral Home on S. Main St. from 1:00pm - 5:00pm.
