LAYING DOWN OUR BURDENS

(ALL) Our God, we know we come up short at times, that we disappoint you, and our neighbor. We know that sometimes, we mistake our ideas of fairness, for your form of justice. We sometimes complain, when your justice seems to advantage those we consider unworthy. "It's not fair," we sometimes cry, when the truth is, we simply do not understand your justice. Forgive us our shortcomings, and help us to see justice the way you do. Amen.
