COMMUNITY CALL TO WORSHIP

Bruce Stahley

Leader: God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in times of trouble.

People: We come seeking shelter in God's steadfast love.

Leader: The Lord hears the cries of the oppressed and sees the wounds that others cannot see.

People: We come trusting that God welcomes the brokenhearted.

Leader: God calls us to seek justice, love mercy, and walk humbly in God's ways.

People: We come ready to learn, to listen, and to be transformed.

Leader: In Christ, fear does not have the final word. Violence does not have the final word. Despair does not have the final word.

People: God's love, God's justice, and God's peace shall prevail.

All: Let us worship God.

LAYING DOWN OUR BURDENS

(ALL) Merciful God, We confess that we have not always loved our neighbors as ourselves.

We have been silent when we should have spoken. We have looked away when others were hurting. We have chosen comfort over courage and convenience over compassion.

Forgive us for the ways we have ignored suffering, dismissed painful stories, or failed to create communities of safety and trust.

Forgive us when fear keeps us from acting, when judgment keeps us from listening, and when indifference keeps us from caring.

Free us from all that separates us from your love and from one another.

Heal what is broken within us. Strengthen what is weary among us.

Guide us in the paths of justice, mercy, and peace.

In Christ's name we pray.

Amen.

PROMISE OF FORGIVENESS
