DIGGING DEEPER

1. Why do you think Paul emphasized the gospel as of first importance?
2. How should this shape what we consider to be most important in our own lives?
3. What would it look like to live as though the gospel were the most important truth in your daily life?
4. How does knowing that the resurrection was preached from the very beginning encourage your faith?
5. How could this passage help address doubts people may have about the resurrection?
6. According to Paul, what is at stake if the resurrection didn't happen?
7. How would the Christian faith be different without the resurrection?
8. What difference does the resurrection make in how you view suffering, sin, death, and eternity?
9. What kind of victory does Jesus offer? How can this help you endure challenges and remain faithful?
10. How have you experienced transformation through Jesus?
11. What does it mean to treasure Jesus as your highest priority?
12. What competes with Jesus for your attention, time, or affection?
