to God's _____

DIGGING DEEPER

1. What was the first responsibility you remember someone entrusted to you (a chore, a job, a project)? How did you handle it?
2. What gifts has God entrusted to you that you sometimes overlook or take for granted?
3. How does thinking like a steward (not an owner) change the way you view your time, finances, or abilities?
4. Why do you think the one-talent servant chose to bury his gift?
5. What are some ways fear, excuses, or busyness keep us from putting God's gifts to use?
6. Where do you sense God nudging you to "invest" more boldly?
7. How does it encourage you that God looks at faithfulness, not results?
8. In what ways are you tempted to compare your gifts, ministry, or fruitfulness with others?
9. What might it look like for you to shift from comparison to contentment in your stewardship?
10. Why is "submission" such a key part of owning God's vision?
11. What does it practically look like to play your part in God's Kingdom mission?
12. How can you/your group/our church live out God's vision more faithfully together?
